Reading This Book

If, while reading the following pages of this book, the reader will keep these things in mind, a much clearer understanding of the contents will result. The format or style used in this book is known as the Modified Register System which has been refined by the National Genealogical Society. Two types of numbers are used: one to identify the individual and one to denote his or her birth order within the nuclear family. The identification numbering system that is used in this book is called: By Generation. The starting person is number 1, his first child is 2. All the children are listed as generation number two, the grandchildren are listed as generation number three and so on. Each person is assigned an ID number in sequential order by generation.

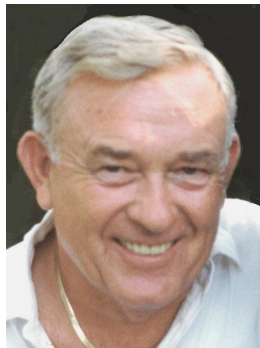

When the list of children is presented, they are numbered using lower case Roman numerals to designate the actual birth-order within the family. If a plus (+) sign appears in the column preceding the sequential ID number, it indicates that more about this child will be presented in his/her separate sketch later in the book. The term "Spouse" may have several different meanings: husband, wife, partner, mate, parent, or significant other. The couple involved may not be legally married. The term "stepchild" may have several different meanings: the child may be a stepchild, adopted child, foster child, or just raised in the home. If there are any other children of the spouse, they will be designated as stepchildren.

Each Generation is followed by a listing of detailed sources and citation documentation applicable to the individuals in that particular generation (See Table of Contents). There are a total of twelve generations contained in this compilation.

The Index is arranged alphabetically by surname. Under each surname, the given names are alphabetically arranged. A female spouse is listed under her maiden surname and is assigned an ID number followed by an "S" (spouse) identifier. Also the year of birth, if known, is printed. The number to the right is the page number where this name appears. A male spouse is listed in the same manner.

It should be evident to the reader that a considerable amount of time and effort was expended in the accumulation of names, dates, places, notes, etc. Unfortunately, the compiler probably made some mistakes that were not detected and corrected while proofreading this document. It would be appreciated if the reader would take the time to make notes of any errors, corrections or additions and advise the compiler. Future revisions would include such changes. Introduction

To understand the conditions which led to the mass flight of our ancestors to America, from the Palatinate in Germany, during the first half of the 18th Century, we must return to the context of the infamous period encompassed by the 17th Century in Europe. The Palatinate, between the borders of France and Germany, took the full brunt of the wars and national problems of its day. The armies of the Thirty Years' War played havoc with the lives and possessions of the wretched inhabitants.

Maculey: Vol. III, p. 112, F. R. Diffenderfer: "The German Exodus to England in 1709" (Pa. German Society Proceedings, VII), and Kuhns: Bernischen Taufer, Chap. 12, all give accounts of the persecutions of the Palatines in the 17th and 18th Centuries. Originally this region in the upper Rhine country of Germany, now comprising the Tyrol, Swabia and Wurtemberg, Bavaria and parts of Picardy in France, and parts of Switzerland, was known, in the time of the Ancient Roman Empire, as "Allemaine", and its people were called the "Allemange". They were the direct descendants of Asiatic tribes that migrated westward out of Asia Minor, across Armenia and Russia, and began to appear about the 3rd Century between the Main and Danube Rivers in southern Germany. In 496 A.D. Chlodwig, King of the Franks, defeated them in battle in the upper reaches of the Rhine and the Allemange were scattered throughout Europe. However, several characteristics stand out throughout all their long history: indomitable courage, indestructible will, independence, intelligence and industry.

The year 1638 was a climax to their misery in the Palatinate, as the armies of France and Germany swept back and forth over their home. Rapine, plunder, fire and murder of the most atrocious kind was followed by famine and pestilence. The people tried to satisfy their hunger by eating roots, grass, and leaves. Even cannibalism became more or less frequent. The gallows and graveyards had to be guarded. The bodies of children were not safe from their mothers. So great was the desolation that, where once flourished farms and vineyards, now only packs of wolves roamed unmolested.

The first of these attempts at genocide by the morbid tyrants of Europe against the Protestants who had torn themselves free of the church hierarchy of that day occurred on St. Bartholomew's Eve, August 24, 1572. The Church and the State, in those days, were one and the same, and to revolt against the one was to commit treason or heresy against the other. The massacre of the "Huguenots", a derisive name applied by the church hierarchy to those who had renounced them for their corruption of Christ's teachings to their own benefit and profit, only served to solidify and focus the resolve of the Palatines to continue their stubborn resistance.

Then followed a period of 100 plus years during which things went from bad to worse. In 1657 the most morbid tyrant of them all, Louis XIV, came to the throne of France. He determined, once and for all time, to wipe out all opposition to the church and his rule. In 20 years after he came to power he destroyed 700 Protestant churches in the Palatinate, and ordered, eventually, its complete destruction. His orders were carried out, to the letter, by Marshall Turenne, bringing, forever, disgrace upon both their names. It was accomplished in three campaigns, the first in 1674, the second when Louis XIV, on October 15, 1685, revoked the Edict of Nantes, and the final and most devastating on January 1, 1689, when Marshall Turenne announced to one-half million Palatines that he was giving them three days grace to leave or "be put to the sword". The Palatines fled, in a bitter, raging blizzard. Soon the roads and field were dotted for miles with the dark, frozen corpses of those unable to reach the safety of the Swiss mountains or make their way to places of refuge in Holland. The destruction went on. Flames consumed all habitations, every village and market place, every parish church and country seat. Crops were destroyed, fields were torn up, orchards were hewn down. Not an almond tree, not a vine was left on the slopes of Frankenthal and Heidelberg. The Palatinate lay in waste for thirty years afterwards. In 1698, the Treaty of Ryswick finally halted the horror and agony of the persecution. However, many thousands of the population survived their impoverishment, and later set out for America. Many of these had first lived for a brief time in the cantons of Switzerland, but soon again had to flee when the Prussian overlords of Germany took over the control of that country. This time they fled into Holland, a more tolerant country, and lived there for one or two generations.

In the spring of 1708, fifty-two Palatines, led by their Lutheran minister, Joshua Kockerthal, landed in England, and petitioned to be sent to America under the recently passed Naturalization Act under which refugees from France and other countries were able to find homes in England or its colonies. The Board of Trade recommended "that they be settled on the Hudson River, in the Province of New York, where they may be useful, particularly in the production of naval stores, and as a frontier against the French and Indians." It was further recommended "that they be given agricultural tools and be sent out with Lord Lovelace, the recently appointed Governor of New York."

In the summer of 1709 the great exodus began, and peaked in the period 1730-1740. The winter of 1708-1709 had been the most bitter in many centuries in Europe. Queen Anne of England had been trying, for several years, to get people to colonize Pennsylvania in America. London was suddenly inundated with refugees from Germany and Holland. They had floated down the Rhine on rafts, to Rotterdam, then set out in ships supplied by William Penn's agents. At first, the English were at a loss as to what to do with them all. Several thousand were sent to Ireland, a few to North Carolina, some to New Amsterdam (New York), some remained in England, some returned to Holland and Germany, and some died. The great majority eventually sailed for the Ports of Philadelphia and New York in America. The listings of some of the many thousands are contained in "Governor Hunter's Ration Lists -- June 1709 to September 1714" which can be found in Palatine Heads of Families, compiled from the Records in London and Presented to the Descendants of the Palatines by Boyd Ehle, C.E. The lists cover six shiploads of immigrants

There was a group of Germans, mainly Lutherans and German Reformed, who had migrated from the Palatinate and the upper Rhine to New York, via London, and ultimately settled at Schoharie, forty miles from Albany, New York. The settlement had been arranged by the then Governor Hunter whose intention it was to employ the Palatines in producing tar from the pine for for the use of the British navy. Conditions were dismal. The land was unfit for cultivation. Becoming disenchanted with life in New York, some of the families from this group trekked their way overland in 1723 to the Susquehanna River, floated down the Susquehanna on rafts, and continued from the river to the Tulpehocken region in what is now Berks County, Pennsylvania. Conrad Weiser, the famous emissary of the Penns to the Indians, was one of them.

The chief reason for their choice of Pennsylvania was the promise of complete religious freedom. This attracted the Lutherans, Calvinists (Reformed), Mennonites, Huguenots, Wolloons, Dunkards, Amish, and many other Protestant sects. It is quite probable that the move from Sussex County (Harmony Township), New Jersey to Pennsylvania by many of the Shipman children was prompted by the same reasons. It is important to note, however, that they had one characteristic in common, viz., they had survived because they were the hardest and the toughest and the most intelligent. Thus they were fully suited to withstand the rigors of pioneer life in Pennsylvania. Old tin-types of these people reveal this stamped upon their faces. It was particularly true of their women, who were sinewy, prolific, and tough, and could work and fight beside their husbands in the fields and forests.

By 1747, three-fifths of the population of Pennsylvania was German, numbering about 120,000 in that year. They spread out from the port of entry at Philadelphia, usually following behind the Scotch-Irish who were inclined to be the first to venture into the interior. These would then sell their warrants to the Germans, who had the stamina to wrest the land from the clutches of the forest.

However, this was not the case for the region recorded herein, i.e., "Allemangel". This name, when literally translated, seems to say "The Region of All-Wants". It included that region which is now the Townships of Heidelberg, Weissenberg, Lowhill, and Lynn in Lehigh County, and Albany and the northern part of Greenwich Townships in Berks County. There is much room for questioning this literal translation, since the similarity between the words "Allemange" and "Allemangel" is inescapable. The suffix "el" is an old German diminutive, and the Palatines were superb farmers who knew exactly how to assess the fertility of soils. Furthermore, they were particularly versed in the recognition of the limestone soil of their homeland in Europe, the soil of Allemangel. And, further, those who have visited the Palatinate in Germany cannot help but see that Allemangel is a miniature replica thereof. Many regions in Allemangel carry names out of the Palatinate, e.g., "die Schweitz", "Heidelberg", "Spitzenberg", "Eihle Dahl", etc. A more probable translation might be "Little Switzerland" or even "Little Palatinate". It is a particularly fertile part of the "Great Valley" lying between the North (Blue Mountain) and the South (Lecha Hills) Mountain, most difficult to reconcile with "All-Wants".

When our progenitors came to New Jersey and Pennsylvania they found much of the land north, west, and south of Philadelphia already occupied. Usually they lived, temporarily, in Falckner's Swamp (Goshenhoppen), roughly the area lying between Skippack and Green Lane in Montgomery County. When his family was secure in that area, the pioneer would set out, alone, to locate a tract for the future, permanent home. When he found such a tract, he would note its location by landmarks, then stake it by pacing, blazing trees for boundaries, etc. Returning to Philadelphia, he would apply for a warrant or patent of land, to the proprietors, John, Richard and Thomas Penn, the sons of William Penn. The proprietors would then authorize their Surveyor General, Nicholas Scull, or his brother, James Scull, Deputy Surveyor, to send out a party of three or four men to survey the tract. When surveyed and described by naming line trees, adjoiners, if any, etc., a warrant would be issued. These warrants were, simply, agreements to purchase, and often caused much misunderstanding for, quite frequently, the prospective purchaser thought he had a property deed of ownership, not realizing he was supposed to pay for the land at some future time. Many tracts were not paid for until years later.

Upon receiving his warrant, or patent, the pioneer packed up his family in Falckner's Swamp and headed for Allemandel, the frontier. They had to first cross the Great Swamp (Longswamp), a barren region south of the South Mountain, then through the Rittenhouse Gap in the South Mountain, into the Great Valley the Penns had purchased. The Indians withdrew from this part of the Great Valley in 1732. The Blue Mountain top was the northern boundary. Surveys were run with a slit compass, a Jacob's Staff, and a Gunther's Chain.

1 Gunther's Chain = 66 ft. = 100 links = 4 perches
1 link = 7.92 inches
80 chains = 1 mile = 320 rods = 5,280 ft.
1 acre = 10 square Gunther's chains = 160 sq. rods = 43,560 sq. ft.

Sometimes the area was computed in "Deutsche Acker", a unit somewhat larger than the English acre. Up to about 1830, the various perch lengths in use, particularly during the colonial period were:

English statute perch = 5½ yards = 16½ ft.
Woodland perch = 6 yards = 18 feet
Churchland perch = 7 yards = 21 feet
Plantation, or forest perch = 8 yards = 24 feet
Irish perch = 7 yards
Scottish perch = 6½ yards
Cunninghamshire perch = 18¾ feet
Vara (Spanish) = 32.993 in. (in Florida & Louisiana)

Distances were, often, simply paced off and converted. The slit-compass, resting on the Jacob's Staff, was aimed on a target such as a tree or other natural marker, and back-sights and forward sights turned to establish the bearings and interior angles. The first surveyors were educated in Europe and had a good engineering background. Their surveys were good, considering the crude instruments with which they frequently worked. They usually submitted a small draft with their descriptions of courses and distances relative to adjoining tracts. They knew the fundamentals of astronomy, magnetic declination, errors of closure, etc. It was after they had died out, from 1830 to about 1940, and were replaced by men who had very little theoretical background, if, indeed, any at all, that the many "laps" and errors were introduced and exist to this day. Very little attempt at reforms in engineering school curricula took place until the situation became so chaotic that the Pennsylvania State Legislature had to establish strict requirements and state board examinations in 1946. The skyrocketing land prices helped to bring on the needed reforms.

After the Indians left the area north of the Blue Mountain in 1749, there was a vast surge of German immigrants into this region. Counties & townships had to be carved out of old Philadelphia County and Bucks County at a rapid rate. Northampton County was created out of Bucks. Lancaster County preceded even Berks County, which was set up on 280,000 acres, Lancaster County--238,500 acres, and Chester County--7,500. A conception of the rapid influx of people can be gained by observing that the population in the City of Reading went from one house in 1750 to 130 houses, 41 stables, and various other outhouses in 1751. The population of the county was about zero in 1738, and 12,000 in 1752. Little wonder that the English became apprehensive of losing control of their colony to the Germans and began, in 1727, to require that all Germans register and swear allegiance to the English king. Stringent penalties were applied if a German failed to comply, such as his property reverting, upon his death to the Crown, rather than to his heirs (loss of the Right of Succession) etc. These registration lists (ships' manifests) have proven, however, a great boon to the researcher and genealogist.

The trip across the ocean took two to three months and was only undertaken by the ships' masters during the summer months in order to escape the storms of the North Atlantic. They usually arrived at the port of Philadelphia in August, September, and no later than October. The crossing was usually fraught with suffering, privation and death. Some ships' masters preyed upon their human cargo like voracious vermin, stealing their valuables, then selling them into indenture to pay for their passage. Tales of the misery aboard many of these ships have come down over the centuries to us, by tradition and by written testimony. Very little provision for sanitary measures, excrement and filth, rats and other vermin were the rule rather than the exception. Disease was rampant. Those who died were unceremoniously thrown overboard.

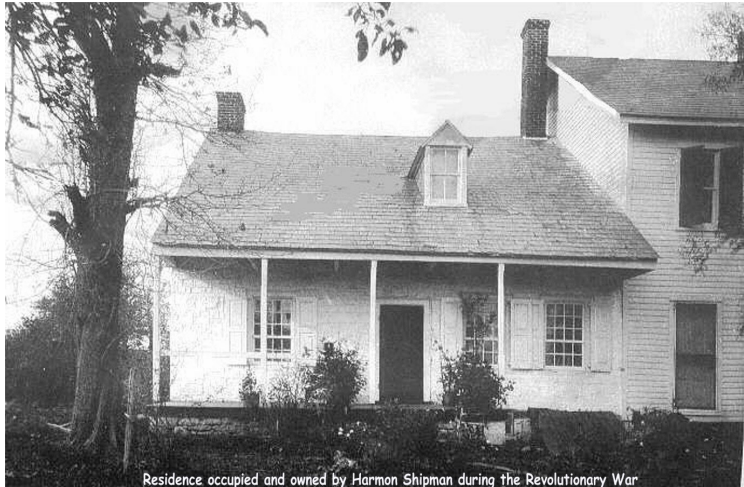

The hardy who survived usually followed the "Great Philadelphia Road", on horseback and with pack-horse behind, to North Wales, across Falckner's Swamp, up the Perkiomen Valley, through the Rittenhouse Gap, to Peter Trexler's west of where now is the village of Breinigsville. There they turned west for about ten miles, roughly following what is now Route 222, then northwesterly to a point near the "Stone Church" or Bethel Church, now the Grimsville Church at old Route 22. There the road swung north into the Allemangel Road, which led over the Schocharie Ridge, into Allemangel. This road was later extended over Hawk Mountain in "Das Eck", (the Corner), where the Blue Mountain and the Pinnacle meet, to the "Church Across the Mountain" (the Red Church serving the Zion Congregation, located one mile south of Orwigsburg in West Brunswick Township). This route later became one of the stage routes, during the early part of the 19th Century, from Philadelphia, Allentown, via Schuylkill Haven to Harrisburg, and was named "The King's Highway", for King George III of England. The church where many of our ancestors found comfort and solitude and were eventually laid to rest was the New Bethel or Corner "Eck" Church in Albany Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania. This church was initially constructed in 1761 when, on the 11th of November at a thanksgiving and prayer service the members laid a corner stone. The inset photo of the church and cemetery was taken in 1998. Many of our ancestors and their relatives are buried in this church yard. The early roads were torturous, dangerous, infested with highwaymen and frequently barely passable for rocks, stumps, etc. The pioneers followed the tops of ridges, hills, and mountains, for the valleys were choked with vines, mosquitoes, and "swamp fever". The settlers who used the roads had little better for their first shelter. They frequently had to resort to caves and dug-outs built in an embankment, with earth on three sides, some lined with timber. The shelters had a crude chimney and a simple arrangement for fire built into the side or back. Poles were laid across the top and covered with boughs, leaves, bark, grasses, or sod. Others sought shelter in huts or covered wagons until a more permanent dwelling could be erected.

The Germans rarely built their homes in the river valleys or creek bottoms, for they knew that the best soil, well-drained and free of "swamp fever", insects, etc., lay on low-lying hills and on higher ground. The English and the Scotch-Irish were not so well-versed in this, particularly in being able to recognize good limestone soil. Thus we find the homesteads of Allemangel usually built at the juncture of two or more small hills, near or over a natural spring, on good limestone based soil.

A large family was an economic advantage for the pioneer and the following generations. The large, well-built and prolific women were the basic force in the success of the Pennsylvania Dutch in Allemangel, as they are in any society. She usually bore her husband from four to thirteen children, worked and fought beside him to ward off attacks of the Indians, prepared the meals, cared for her children, and quite frequently buried two or three husbands! A family containing five or six sons could clear up to ten acres per year of thick forest land. When cleared, the soil was extremely fertile. The larger the family, the more prosperous. Each generation had the goal of leaving the homestead larger and wealthier than the previous generation. The subsequent removal of many of the descendant families to the areas North and West of the Berks county area was principally due to the ever-increasing size of the families as each generation multiplied in numbers.

Descendants of Harmon Shipman

First Generation

1. Herman Schuppmann¹ was born before 1670 in Freymersheim unter Alzey, Rhineland, Germany. He died about 1717 in Kippsberry, Hunterdon Co., New Jersey.

The inclusion of Herman Schuppmann as the probable parent of Harmon Shipman is partially based on conjecture rather than documented proofs. It permits the compiler to present the known facts as well as the "tradition" statements that have been published in attempting to establish the place and time of origin of the ancestors of Harmon. The reader should keep in mind that Harmon initially appeared in Warren County, New Jersey in the mid 1700's. Available records claim that Harmon was born in 1717 in Germany and then emigrated to America in 1740. There is no known ship's list showing his arrival nor is there any indication that he pledged allegiance to the crown, as was the custom and occasionally, a requirement. This would imply that he could have been born in this country in 1717. Based on that possibility, the following must be considered.

"A Herman Schuchman was a Lutheran living at Freymersheim unter Alzey in 1698 (Alzey Census of 1698); it has not been established if this man was the same man as the 1709er but the timing does appear to be right, "Herman Schupman & vrouw (wife), 7 children" who were on Captain Johann Blouwer's ship in the 5th party of Palatines in Holland in 1709 ("Embarkation List from Rotterdam, Holland"). These lists comprise the enumeration of five separate sailings of Palatines from Holland, as sent by the Rotterdam Commissioners, Van Toren and Van Gent, to Minister Dayrolle, who forwarded them to England. The lists were found in the Public Record Office, T 1/119, 6-10, 19-26, 68-72, 58-65 and 79-82. They comprise notations of about 11,000 persons, by far the largest list of all the lists relating to this immigration, although even the Embarkation Lists are not complete. They lack the enumeration of the first party to sail in 1709, the 825 persons given in Appendix B. They do not include those Palatines who paid their own way to London or were sent by private charity in August and October 1709 as related in Chapter 11."

"Schuppmann, Herman 6-2, 4-2" as part of "The New York Subsistence List," described (page 282) as: "This list was compiled from the 'journal' of Palatine debtors to the British government for subsistence given either in New York City or in the Hudson River settlements, from their landing in 1710 to September 1712. The list was found in the Public Record Office, C. O. 5/1231. As it seemed advisable to include some notation of the number in each family and since limitations of space forbade the inclusion of the six notations at various times given in the journal, only two notations have been given here, that is, the first in 1710 usually and the last in 1712 normally. Thus, with Abelman, Johann Peter 2-1, 2-0,' the size of the family signified is two adults and one child under ten years of age; by 1712 the child had died for we have noted only two adults. All children over 10 years of age were given the full allowance for adults and were therefore not distinguished from more mature members of the family."

Herman Schuppmann made his initial appearance on the Hunter Lists (New York Palatine Subsistence Lists of Governor Robert Hunter) on 1 July 1710 with 6 persons over 10 years of age and 2 persons under 10 years of age. Based on the indicated ages of the children it is possible that one of the male children could have been the father of Harmon Shipman.

In "The Palatine Families of New York" by Henry Z. Jones, Jr., 1985, pages 941-943, the author lists probable issue to include: Nicholaus, Catharina, Friederich and Jacob. He also states that Harmon Shipman could have been a part of this family. Considering the subsequent repeat of such names as Nicholaus and Jacob in Harmon's children, it must be considered that Herman Schuppmann could have been the father or an uncle of our Harmon Shipman.

In "The Early Germans of New Jersey", T. F. Chambers, page 493, listed under Shipman: "Jacob Shubman (Shipman), on Society Lands, 1735, signed with Matthias, the subscription for a barn, 1751; married Mareiket (Mary Catherine); had Mareitje, b 14 Jan 1734, and prob. also Harmon; prob of German descent and no relation to Matthias." Based on the foregoing, this Jacob Shubman would have been born about 1719. It is more probable that he was a brother of Harmon Shipman.

Herman married Elizabeth Susanna Schoeckmann². Elizabeth was born about 1670 in Germany. She died in Oldwick, Hunterdon Co., New Jersey and was buried in New Germantown, Oldwick, New Jersey.

They had the following children:

- + 2 M i. Jacob Shipman was born 1694 and died 16 Oct 1761.
- 3 F ii. Catherina Schuppmann was born about 1696 in Germany.
Catherina married Laurens Ruloffsen on 26 Jun 1715 in New York City Lutheran Church Book record, New York.
The reference to Catharina's marriage indicates she was the daughter of the late German potter, Herman Schuchman on the Raritans at 9-Mile Run.
- 4 M iii. Nicolaus Wilhelm Schuppmann was born about 1698 in Germany. He died after 1761.
Nicolaus was listed on the Janeway accounts in 1738 & 1742. He was a witness to his brother, Jacob's will in 1761.
Nicolaus married³ Anna Regina Greiff on 2 Dec 1728 in Evangelisch, Sankt Goar, Rheinland, Preussia.
- 5 M iv. Freiderich Schuppmann was born about 1702 in Germany.
Freiderich received cash from the estate of Jacob Bodine, Jr. of Hunterdon County, New Jersey in 1748. He was also listed as a subscriber of 4 shillings to the building fund of the Lutheran Church in 1727 (New York City Lutheran Protocol).
- 6 M v. John Schuppmann was born about 1704 in Germany. He died 9 Jun 1787.
- 7 M vi. Harmon Schuppmann was born about 1708.
- 8 F vii. Christina Schuppmann was born Sep 1716 in Somerset Co., New Jersey.
Christina married Casper Hendershot, son of Johan Michael Hendershot (Hinnerscheid) and Katherine Ann Von Heinrechshofen. Casper was born 13 Nov 1699 in Naumburger Hof, Hohenollen, Bayern, Germany. He died before 1770 in Tewksbury Twp., Hunterdon Co., New Jersey.
- + 9 M viii. Harmon Shipman (Schuppmann) was born 1717 and died 8 Mar 1805.

Second Generation

2. Jacob Shipman (Herman) was born 1694 in Germany. He died 16 Oct 1761 in Tewksbury, Hunterdon Co., New Jersey.

The New York City Lutheran Protocol lists Jacob Schubman as one who contributed 5 shillings to the church building fund in 1727. He was elected Deacon by the people at Racheway in 1731 (Albany Protocol, page 10). Jacob was noted in the Janeway Accounts 1735 and 1738. Also, he was named a defendant in a writ by Pfr. Wolf on 5 November 1738 and was to appear at Perth Amboy in March, 1739; he subsequently lost the lawsuit (believed to have been a trespass / boundary dispute). Jacob Shipman and John Hendershot made the inventory for the estate of Jacob Bodine, Jr. of Hunterdon County, New Jersey. Nicolaus Shipman was a fellow bondsman and Friederich Shipman received a cash payment in the settlement.

Jacob Shipman, yeoman of Tewksbury Township (Hunterdon Co., New Jersey), dated his will 9 Sep 1761. It was probated 16 Oct 1761. The will is recorded in N. J. Wills: Vol. 33, p. 383).

Jacob married Mary Rosina Catherine Hendershot^{1,2}, daughter of Johan Michael Hendershot (Hinersscheid) and Katherine Ann Von Heinrechshofen, in Oct 1715 in Raritan Church, Somerset Co., New Jersey. Mary was born 6 Nov 1704 in Hohenollem, Germany. She died 1770 in Oldwick, Hunterdon Co., New Jersey.

They had the following children:

- + 10 M i. Mathias Shipman was born 11 Jul 1726 and died 12 Jan 1812.
- + 11 M ii. Jacob Shipman was born about 1728.
- + 12 F iii. Elizabeth Shipman was born about 1730.
- 13 F iv. Anne (Anna?) Shipman.
Anne married John Stine.
- 14 F v. Gertrude Shipman was born 12 Oct 1735 in Germantown, Hunterdon Co., New Jersey. She died 13 Feb 1820 in Hunterdon Co., New Jersey.
Gertrude married Samuel Wyckoff in Nov 1759.

- 16 F vii. Maria Shipman was christened 14 Jan 1733/1734 in Raritan Dutch Reformed Church, New Jersey.
The sponsors at Maria's christening were Lucas Dibbel and his wife, Maria. (Source: N. Y. City Luth. Ckbk.)
- + 17 F viii. Magdalena "Lena" Shipman was born 1 Jun 1740 and died 14 Nov 1813.
- 18 F ix. Margaret Shipman.
Margaret married George Teeble.

9. Harmon Shipman (Schuppmann)³ (Herman) was born 1717 in Germany. He died 8 Mar 1805 in Uniontown, Harmony Twp., Warren County, New Jersey and was buried Mar 1805 in the Straw Church Cem., Harmony Twp., Warren Co., New Jersey.

Harmon Shipman, Sr. and his first wife (unknown) reportedly emigrated to American in 1740. Repeated efforts to locate his name on any of the pre-1750 ship lists were unsuccessful. Harmon's original homestead is located in Lopatcong (originally Harmony) Township, Uniontown, Warren County, New Jersey. He purchased 200 acres of virgin forest, cleared most of this land and lived here the balance of his life. On 21

March 1807 an indenture deed on the same property states that "Aforesaid tract duly conveyed to Herman Shipman by John Hendershot 4 June 1789". In all probability, as with many other properties, Harmon had acquired the 200 plus acres several years prior to the actual deed date and had arranged an installment payoff.

Some years prior to the Revolutionary war Harmon erected on his plantation a substantial stone residence, in which most of his children were born. The house, in 1889, was still in a good state of preservation. In October 1889, Clarence W. Fisher (author of "Genealogy of Joseph Fisher and his Descendants" including Shipman family) had the residence photographed and an engraving made of it for his book (see inset photo). He received and printed in the book a description of the homestead and the place of burial which he received from Mr. R. B. Vannetta, Clerk of Harmony Township, Warren County, New Jersey. The letter was posted in Roxbury, New Jersey and was dated November 25th, 1889. Mr. Vannetta stated in part, "I have this day taken a drive to see the old Harmon, Sr. Shipman Homestead and took the dimensions of the old house. The size is 28 by 30 feet, story and half high. The old part of the house has three rooms up stairs as originally built; down stairs there are at present three rooms, but originally four, the change in the rooms were made this spring. The house has the old-fashioned fire-place right across the corner. The ceilings are seven feet six inches high. There was an old one-story kitchen attached to the house but that has been removed and a large frame part erected in its stead. Upon further inquiry of some old gentlemen in the same neighborhood, I learned there was a gentleman by the name of Harmon Shipman buried in what is known as the Straw Church (St. James) grave yard. So I drove on to that church yard, and made a tour of inspection among the old settlers of that silent city, finally I came upon a slab that marked the last resting place of Harmon Shipman. The following is the inscription thereon:

Harmon Shipman
Died March 8th, 1805
Age 88 years
This slab is erected to his memory by David Shipman, his only surviving child, and his Grandchildren in 1858

As of 1996, the church yard where he is buried is situated on the north side of present day U S Route 22. The church itself (as result of construction of the highway) is now situated between the east and west bound lanes, in a medial section of the highway.

Upon the death of Harmon Shipman, Sr., his sons, Abraham and Harmon, Jr. succeeded to the ownership of the homestead, and in 1807 Abraham sold his interest in the estate to his brother, Harmon, and moved to Franklin Township, Warren county, NJ where he died. In 1889 (when the above mentioned photo engraving was made) the homestead building was owned by the D. Fiet estate. In 1871 the township of Lopatcong was surveyed by the F. W. Beers & Co. of 36 Vesey Street, New York. All present day (1871) property owners were plotted on the map. A copy of the map is attached hereto. The D. Feit propety is clearly evident on the south side of Uniontown. In 1996, the Compiler of this record visited Warren County and with the assistance of the County Clerk, Terrance Lee, was able to pinpoint the exact location of the Harmon Shipman property and home. It is now owned by Dave & Alice Phillips. They recently completed a major restoration of the home and it is in excellant condition. Many photographs were taken by the Compiler. One of the photos is shown herein. Note the minimal change in the physical characteristics of the structure. The hidden entrance from the main road, the gravel approach over the small bridge that spans the stream, the original entrance door to the house -- all of these add to the beauty of this pre-revolutionary home of our ancestor.

During the struggle for Independence, Harmon Shipman aided the American cause in every possible way. He also sent his sons, William, Nicholas (who enlisted at the age of sixteen), John and Christian, to do battle for their country's freedom.

It is believed that Harmon Shipman who spelled his name with the English spelling, and who named his children with Bible names in the English manner of the times, although born in Germany, is believed to have been a descendant of an English Shipman who had fled to the Continent for safety during one of the English persecutions. History tells us that "There in the Protestant cities of Germany & Switzerland, those who had fled to the continent upon the accession of Mary Tudor (Bloody Mary) kept alive the reformed religion as they had known it in the days of Edward VI." The following excerpt was found in "Genealogical & Biographical Annals of Northumberland County Pennsylvania", Chicago, J. L. Floyd & Co. 1911 page 192:

"SHIPMAN--The Shipman family, which is numerous & creditably represented in Northumberland county, has been resident there for considerably more than a century (this written in 1911), and has had representatives in this county from the earliest Colonial days. In the Old World it is of ancient record. The ancestor of these Shipmans was of Norman descent and was knighted by Henry III. of England in 1253 and given the following coat of arms: Gules, on a bent argent betwixt six estoiles, or, three pellets. Crest: A Leopard, sejant, spotted sa., resting his dexter paw on a ship's rudder. Motto: "Non sibi sed orbi." The family seat was at Sarrington, in Nottinghamshire. In 1635 Edward Shipman, a refugee from religious persecution, came to America in company with Hugh Peters, John Davenport, Theodore Fenwick and others, and settled at Saybrook, Conn. From him one American branch of the family is descended."

The following Will, proved Mar. 25, 1805, is Recorded, Surrogate's Office, Lib. A of Wills, p. 53.

19. William Shipman¹ (Harmon Shipman (Schuppmann), Herman) was born 9 Jun 1756 in Uniontown, Harmony Twp., Warren Co., New Jersey. He died 23 Jan 1841 in Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried^{2,3} 25 Jan 1841 in Mountain Presbyterian Church Cem., Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

The following is from a family history that was in the possession of Judge Shipman, of Belvidere, New Jersey: "William Shipman's father was one of the first settlers of Morristown, New Jersey, assisting in the erection of the first house built there. He (William) and three of his brothers served with credit during the Revolutionary War, and another relative died aboard the old "Jersey" prison ship in Wallabout Bay. Jacob Shipman, brother of William, was one of the first settlers near Fisher's Ferry, Northumberland County, Pennsylvania, where he bought a large tract of land and where he lived to a good old age. David Shipman (son of Jacob), born Feb 26, 1809, bought the homestead near Fisher's Ferry and divided it with his brother Sylvanus, making two good-sized farms. John L. Shipman, son of David, who served with credit in the late Rebellion, is living in his native State and county."

William Shipman was a volunteer in the Revolutionary War. When he returned to Harmony Township, Warren County, New Jersey after the war, he married and started to raise a family. By 1794 he and his brother, Nicholas and their families moved to Pennsylvania. (the southern part of Augusta township, Northumberland County). Here he purchased an initial 150 acres of land. In 1794 he was assessed for the ownership of 150 acres. He subsequently purchased additional land in this area (near the head of Boyle's Run). He lived out his life on this farm.

The Last Will of William Shipman is recorded in Will Book 3, Page 368 (Northumberland County, Pennsylvania). In his will, William gave to his son, Abraham, three fields on a public road and adjacent to land of John Shipman; to daughter, Sarah (married to Jacob Roads), the homesite and personal property; to his daughter, "Lizzie", who married John Auchmuty and children, and to son William's children, shares after the residual land was sold. John Shipman and Peter Snyder (married to daughter, Johannah) were executors. The witness on the will was Abraham Shipman.

William married Catherine Campbell, daughter of Daniel Campbell and Rachel Howe, in Uniontown, Harmony Twp, Warren County, New Jersey. Catherine was born about 1765 in Sussex Co., New Jersey. She died before 1834 in Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried⁴ in Mountain Presbyterian Church Cem., Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

They had the following children:

- + 69 M i. Col. John Shipman was born 13 Oct 1783 and died 8 Apr 1850.
- 70 M ii. Jacob Shipman was born 1785 in Uniontown, Harmony Twp., Warren Co., New Jersey. He died 1838.
- 71 M iii. William, Jr. Shipman was born 1787 in Uniontown, Harmony Twp., Warren Co., New Jersey. He died Sep 1824.
- 72 M iv. Abraham Shipman was born 1789 in Uniontown, Harmony Twp., Warren Co., New Jersey.
- + 73 F v. Johannah Shipman was born 16 Apr 1789 and died 11 Jul 1859.
- + 74 F vi. Elizabeth "Lizzie" Shipman was born 1793.
- + 75 F vii. Sarah Shipman was born 25 Feb 1795 and died 10 Sep 1868.
- 76 F viii. Lydia Shipman was born 1797 in Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania. She died in Died very young.

20. Nicholas Shipman⁵ (Harmon Shipman (Schuppmann), Herman) was born 25 Aug 1758 in Uniontown, Harmony Twp., Warren Co., New Jersey. He died Sep 1827 in Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried in River Presbyterian Church Cem., Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

Nicholas was reared on his father's plantation in Harmony Township, NJ. He enlisted in the military at the start of the Revolutionary War (age 16) in the First NJ Militia and remained in the service until the close of the war. Nicholas is listed in the DAR's "Patriot Index" (Centennial Edition Part 3, page 2,652) as having served as a Private. He lived near the homestead until the Spring of 1794 when they moved to Lower Augusta Township in Pennsylvania on a farm of 150 acres. He subsequently made additional purchases of land at the head of Boyles Run. He remained on this farm the balance of his life. They were members of the River Presbyterian Church and both he and his wife are buried there.

Of particular interest is an indenture (legal deed) handwritten on an original sheepskin document dated May 27, 1803, covering lands in Lower Augusta Township, Northumberland County, Pennsylvania. The document was recorded in Northumberland County, in the Office for Recording of Deeds on February 26, 1805. (Deed book M pg 513 & 514). It is reprinted here in order to preserve what is becoming very faded and difficult to read as of this date--August 28, 1992 (The original deed is in the possession of the compiler, John Shipman Hendricks):

The Last Will of Nicholas Shipman is recorded in Willbook 3, page 14 and dated 13 August 1827. The will does not mention his wife, Catharine so it is concluded that she was already dead when the will was drawn. To his son, Harmon, he willed a plantation of three pieces of land in Augusta Township consisting of 25 to 30 acres for which the son was to pay $350. to the executors in installments over several years. To his son, Joseph, he willed land also for which $300. was to be paid to the estate. To his grandson, John Fleming (whose mother was Catherine, deceased wife of Robert Fleming), the land on which they resided. To daughter, Elizabeth, wife of Obadiah Campbell, he willed $300. and to daughter, Mary Shipman, $400. and her choice of household goods as long as she remained unmarried and resided in the house on the homestead.

He died 24 Feb 1848 in Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried^{8,9} in Mountain Presbyterian Church Cem., Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

Jacob Shipman served in the Revolutionary War. See "New Jersey in 1793: Abstract & Index to the 1793 Military Census of the State of New Jersey," by James S. Norton, 1973, p. 278, #214. In 1802, Jacob Shipman (then age 36) followed his older brothers, William and Nicholas, to Pennsylvania and acquired 149 acres of land and a cabin near the lands owned by his older brothers near Boyle's Run in Augusta Township, Northumberland County, Pennsylvania. He was assessed the same year (1802) with one hundred and forty-nine acres of land, a small cabin, two horses and two cows. He was twice married, his first wife being a Miss Rebecca Minier, by whom he had two sons, Abraham and Jacob. His second wife was Rachael Bird. He resided there for the rest of his life. (In 1995 the Compiler photographed Jacob's tombstone at the Mountain Presbyterian Church Cemetery. Although badly eroded, it was still quite legible.)

- 82 M i. Abraham Shipman.

Mary married (1) Isaac Updegrove.

Mary also married (2) John W. Ebright, son of John Ebright and Catharine.

27. Harmon, Jr. Shipman (Harmon Shipman (Schuppmann), Herman) was born 28 Jan 1772 in Uniontown, Harmony Twp., Warren Co., New Jersey and was christened¹¹ 12 Jul 1772 in St. James Lutheran Church, "Straw Church", Warren Co., New Jersey. He died 24 Mar 1854 in Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried¹² in Boiles Run Methodist Church Cem., Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

According to the records of St. James Lutheran "Straw" Church, Harmon, Jr. was baptized as "Hermanus" and the sponsors at the baptismal ceremony were his parents. Harmon Shipman Jr. and his brother Abraham succeeded to the ownership of the family homestead in Harmony Township, New Jersey and in 1807, Harmon bought Abraham's interest in the homestead. Harmon subsequently removed to Pennsylvania where he died. His burial record is listed in Northumberland County Cemeteries, pg 122, from the Northumberland County Prothonotary's Office.

It is interesting to note that in 1820, Harmon and his wife, Susan conveyed a parcel of land to a Jacob Andrews, probable brother-in-law of Harmon's youngest sister, Mary. She married Christopher Andrews, son of a Jacob Andrews. That conveyance is recorded in Deed Book P2, page 312,3,4, Sussex County, New Jersey. It is repeated here in its entirety:

"This Indenture made the twenty eight day of March in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and twenty, Between Harmon Shipman and Susan, his wife of the Township of Mansfield in the county of Sussex and State of New Jersey of the one part and Jacob Andrews / Blacksmith / of the Township of ? in the county of Sussex and the State of New Jersey of the other part. Together with all and singular the profits, priviledges and advantages with the appurtances to same belonging or in any wise appertaining also all the estate, right, title, interest, property claim and demand whatsoever of the said Harmon Shipman and Susan, his wife, of, in and to the same and of, in and to every part and parcel thereof. To have and to hold all and singular the above described tract or lot of land and premises, with the appurtenances unto the said Jacob Andrews, his heirs and assigns to the only proper use, benefit and behalf of the said Jacob Andrews, his heirs and assigns forever and the said Harmon Shipman doth for himself, his heirs, executors, and administrators, covenant and grant to and with the said Jacob Andrews, his heirs and assigns that they, the said Harmon Shipman and Susan, his wife, are the true, lawful and right owners of all and singular the above described land and premises and of every part and parcel thereof and are now lawfully seized and possessed of the same as a good, perfect and absolute estate of inheritance in fee simple and that the said land and premises, or any part thereof, at the time of sealing and delivery of these presents, are not encumbered by any mortgage, Judgement, dower recognizance or limitation or by any incumbrance whatsoever, by which the title of the said Jacob Andrews, hereby made or intended to be made, for the above described land and premises, can or may be changed, charged, altered or defeated in anyway whatever and also that the said Harmon Shipman and Sus, his wife, now have good right full power and lawful authority to grant, bargain, sell and convey the said land and premises in manner aforesaid. Also that he will warrant, secure and forever defend the said land and premises unto the said Jacob Andrews, his heirs and assigns forever against the lawful claims and claimants of all and every person and persons freely and clearly freed and discharged of and for all manner of incumbrances, whatsoever. Harmon, married Susannah. Susannah was born 21 May 1787. She died 10 Jun 1861 in Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried¹³ in Boiles Run Methodist Church Cem., Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

It is ironic to note that Abraham and his brother Jacob (who was 7 years his senior) died within hours of each other--Feb 24 and Feb 25, 1848. Possible accident or just coincidence???

Abraham Shipman, with his brother, Harmon, Jr. succeeded to the ownership of the family homestead. In 1807 Abraham sold his interest in the estate to Harmon and moved to Franklin Township, near Asbury, New Jersey where he purchased 150 acres, then 83 acres and then 57 acres. He was a Democrat and active in building the Valley Church. He lived in a quiet way as a farmer and was known as an honest man. He sought no political place, although he was a staunch Democrat of the olden time. Both he and his wife were members of the Valley Church near Hampton. It should be noted by the reader that this source, History of Sussex and Warren Co. (on page 704) states that Abraham "died in the township in his seventy-fourth year" and also states (on page 712a) "he died Feb. 25, 1848". This conflict has not yet been resolved by the compiler.

Abraham married Mary Eckman, daughter of James Eckman, on 2 Feb 1800. Mary was born 16 Jan 1775. She died 12 May 1851.

They had the following children:

- 95 M i. Jacob Shipman¹⁵ was born 1 Oct 1800 in Franklin Twp., Warren Co., New Jersey. He died 13 Oct 1876 in Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried in Mountain Presbyterian Church Cem., Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

100 M vi. Charles Shipman was born 8 Dec 1817 in Franklin Twp., Warren Co., New Jersey. He died 7 Jan 1835.

31. Mary Shipman (Harmon Shipman (Schuppmann), Herman) was born 1781 in Uniontown, Harmony Twp., Warren Co., New Jersey. She died 7 Mar 1854 in Danvile, Montour Co., Pennsylvania.

Mary married¹⁶ Christian Andres, son of Jacob Andrews and Rachel, on 21 Jan 1807 in Sussex Co., New Jersey. Christian was born 15 Nov 1774 in Harmony Twp., Sussex Co., New Jersey. He died 31 Jul 1838 in Thornton, Illinois.

On page 184 of "Sussex County, N.J. Marriages", compiled by Howard E. Case, published by Heritage Books, Inc., 1992 is the entry reflecting the marriage of "Mary Shipman, born 1781, married Christian Andres on 21 Jan 1807".

Christian and Mary had the following children:

+ 101 M i. John Andrews was born 29 Jul 1814 and died 2 Nov 1869.

He died 27 Jul 1865 in Elysburg, Ralpho Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried²⁰ in Sharp Ridge Methodist Church Cem., Mayberry Twp., Montour Co., Pennsylvania.

The following quoted material was found in "Genealogical and Biographical Annals of Northumberland County Pennsylvania", J. L. Floyd & Co., 1911:

"Obadiah Campbell, one of the sons of the Obadiah mentioned at the opening of this article, was born in New Jersey in 1776 (this date believed to be in error), and was a young boy when his parents came thence to Pennsylvania, in 1779. He was brought up on the farm in Ralpho township, part of which is now embraced in the south end of Elysburg, and eventually came to own his father's homestead, upon which he made his home for some years. He then made a settlement in Columbia county, upon a large tract of timber land which he had purchased; just three or four miles east of Elysburg, erected a sawmill and engaged in the lumber business which he continued all his life. He was a man of thrift and enterprise, and built up a business which kept his sawmill busy day and night, giving employment to a number of men. He had three hundred or more acres of land upon which there was good timber, his land extending to the creek which divides Columbia and Northumberland counties, and he cleared two farms there, both now owned by one of his grandsons, Ezra Yocom, whose mother was Jane Campbell. There Obadiah Campbell lived, worked and died, and he is buried upon that place, as is also his father, Obadiah, who brought the family out from New Jersey. They were Presbyterians, but many of the old Campbells are buried at the Sharp Ridge Church, which is a Methodist church. Obadiah Campbell was a man of note in his community in every way. He was, like his father, a strong Democrat, and wielded considerable influence in the local councils of the party, though he would not accept office. He was an active member of the Presbyterian Church, held offices in the church and led the choir for many years. He was captain of a military company for thirteen years. His death occurred July 27, 1865, and that of his wife May 27, 1866. Her maiden name was Elizabeth Shipman, and she was like her husband, a native of New Jersey, coming to Pennsylvania when five years old with her father, Nicholas Shipman, who settled with his family in Rockefeller township. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell had a family of ten children, namely: Nicholas settled in Elysburg; Mary married William Thompson; Hannah married James Hile; Jane married Elijah Yocom; Obadiah S. is mentioned below; Elizabeth married and is deceased; Joanna married a McMirtry (or McMurtrie), who was from New Jersey and returned to that State (they had a son John and a daughter Maggie); John is mentioned below; Sarah married Shultz Knittle; Jackson settled on one of the two farms into which his father's 300-acre tract was divided, Elijah Yocom, his brother-in-law, coming into possession of the other."

86. David Shipman³⁷ (Jacob Shipman, Harmon Shipman (Schuppmann), Herman) was born 28 Feb 1809 in Fisher's Ferry, Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania. He died 17 Mar 1897 in Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried³⁸ in Union Presbyterian Church Cem., Fisher's Ferry, Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

According to census records, in 1840, this couple was living in Augusta township, Northumberland County. One child, 2 years old was living at home. In 1850, they were living in Lower August township and David listed the value of their owned real estate as $2,000.00. He stated he was a farmer. In 1860, David continued to list himself as a farmer and real estate still listed at $2,000.00. In 1870, they were still listed at their former address and real estate was now valued at $6,000.00. In 1880, David was still in the same home, now a retired farmer and a widower. In 1880 the only other occupant of the household was his daughter, Clarinda, listed as 38 years of age. This last census record indicates that David was a retired farmer, 71 years of age. Apparently, the unmarried daughter, Clarinda was keeping house for her father.

David married Elizabeth Hendershot, daughter of John Hendershot and Sarah "Sally" Snyder. Elizabeth was born 20 Sep 1813. She died³⁹ 9 Feb 1877 in Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried in Union Presbyterian Church Cem., Fisher's Ferry, Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

He died⁴² 9 Dec 1887 in Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried⁴³ in Boiles Run Baptist Church Cem., Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

In 1840 the family lived in Augusta township, Northumberland County, Pennsylvania. Two children were living at home. Based on the birth records that have been found thus far, it would appear that the two children listed as living in the home in 1840 were not children born to Sylvanus and Harriet. In 1850 they resided in Lower Augusta Township and Sylvanus had already remarried to Harriet's sister, Rebecca Hendershot. In 1860 there was no change in residence and he now listed the value of his real estate as $3,000.00. He was listed as a farmer. In 1870 his real estate holdings had increased to $5,000.00. In the 1880 census, Rebecca was listed as wife of Sylvanus and two children were listed as living at home: Arelia WYNN (her married name), 22 years of age and Fred SHIPMAN, age 16.

Sylvanus married (1) Harriet A. Hendershot, daughter of John Hendershot and Sarah "Sally" Snyder, before 1840. Harriet was born 12 Feb 1819. She died 12 Aug 1846 in Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried⁴⁴ in Boiles Run Baptist Church Cem., Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

- 238 F ii. Emaline Shipman⁴⁵ was born 28 Jul 1841. She died 28 Jun 1891 in Ansley, Nebraska.

The personal life of Emaline was quite sad and tragic -- born in 1841, she had reached the age for marriage about the time the Civil War broke out. She had a daughter, Laura Jane, born in 1868 and the father had died in the war before a marriage occurred. Emaline and her daughter were living during the 1870 census with a Hiram Curtis, a farmer in La Grange County, Indiana and his invalid wife. Years later, Hiram Curtis married Emaline in 1885, six years before she died.

- 239 M iii. Andrew J. Shipman was born 4 Jul 1843 in Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania. He died 20 Sep 1875 in Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried in Boiles Run Baptist Church Cem., Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

- + 240 F iv. Mary Ann Shipman was born 31 Jul 1846 and died 27 Feb 1907.

Sylvanus also married (2) Rebecca Hendershot, daughter of John Hendershot and Sarah "Sally" Snyder, on 14 Mar 1847. Rebecca was born 25 Feb 1827. She died 30 Oct 1902 in Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried⁴⁶ in Boiles Run Baptist Church Cem., Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

Orillo is listed as "Arelia Wynn" in the 1880 federal U S Census. She is shown as residing in the household of her father, Sylvanus.

Orillo married Silas H. Wynn, son of Annias Wynn and Elizabeth White.

- 244 M viii. Fredrick E. Shipman was born 19 Aug 1864.

96. William W. Shipman (Abraham Shipman, Harmon Shipman (Schuppmann), Herman) was born 5 Sep 1802 in Franklin Twp., Warren Co., New Jersey. He died 9 Jun 1886 in Asbury, Franklin Twp., Warren Co., New Jersey.

William passed his life as an industrious and prudent farmer and while he has been favored with a competency, he has remembered the needy and deserving around him. His plain and unassuming ways, his known integrity in all his business relations, and his conscientious regard for justice to all make him esteemed by his fellow men. Both he and his wife were members of the Presbyterian Church at Asbury since its organization having formerly been connected with the Valley Church. He was always a member of the Democratic party, and in middle life took quite an active part in local politics. He was honored by his fellow citizens with several official positions in his township. He served as coroner, surveyor of roads, judge of election, and in all has held offices for some thirty years.

142. Hon. Abraham Shipman¹ (John Shipman, William Shipman, Harmon Shipman (Schuppmann), Herman) was born 6 Mar 1810 in Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania. He died 8 Aug 1878 in Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried^{2,3} in Mountain Presbyterian Church Cem., Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

Abraham Shipman studied civil engineering under David Andrews and entered upon his profession in March 1836. For a number of years he served as as Northumberland County Surveyor. In his younger days he served as Orderly Sergeant in the Military Company known as the "Jackson Rifles". For ten years he was an Associate Judge of Northumberland County, Pennsylvania. He served later as the Justice of the Peace for Lower Augusta Township, where he resided. He was also engaged in the milling business. His sons, Lemuel, March and Saul, served in the Union army during the war of the Rebellion.

On a somewhat negative note, during 1861 the following news article appeared in the local paper, The Sunbury American, Saturday, April 27, 1861:

". . . The great impropriety, to say nothing of the criminality, of speaking and writing or sympathizing with

". . . The great impropriety, to say nothing of the criminality, of speaking and writing or sympathizing with the South in their traitorous conduct, was witnessed here on Saturday last. Abraham SHIPMAN, Esq., one of our leading politicians, and one of the most respectable citizens of Lower Augusta township, was brought before Esquire SHINDEL, on a warrant, under the late act, to answer for some expressions made in regard to the enlistment of soldiers in defense of the government. A large and excited crowd was before the office. Mr. SHIPMAN stated that he was, and always had been a Union man. It appeared, however, that he had used some very indiscreet and improper language, favorable to the South, and it was with difficulty that violent demonstrations were suppressed. Mr. SHIPMAN was discharged on condition that he would take the oath of allegiance. We deem it proper to give the above statement of the facts, in justice to the public and Mr. SHIPMAN himself, as rumors are in circulation that he was in prison. We have known Mr. SHIPMAN many years and cannot believe he would intentionally favor traitors and disunionists. His error has perhaps been that of imbibing and thoughtlessly giving expression to opinions from the treacherous sheet, The New York Herald, and its bumble [sic] imitators. The War Excitement - The Troops at This Place Never since we have been a government has there been as much excitement as now among our citizens. Never have we witnessed such a week as the last. Everyday the railroad depot was thronged with hundreds to witness the arrival of the volunteers to defense of their country and government - and extend to them not only cheers of encouragement, but provisions for the hungry."

The Last Will of Abraham Shipman is recorded in Will Book 6, page 531 and dated 14 August 1878. As result of the widow having renounced, his son, Ira Shipman became the executor who entered into bond with John Bloom and A. S. Speece as sureties. The bondsmen were both sons-in-law. At that time, Lemuel Shipman was the Registrar for Northumberland County.

Abraham married Elizabeth "Betsy" Yoxtheimer, daughter of George Yoxtheimer and Sara Catherine Dawson, on 14 Feb 1837 in Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania. Elizabeth was born 17 Jan 1815 in Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania. She died 8 Apr 1892 in Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried⁴ 10 Apr 1892 in Mountain Presbyterian Church Cem., Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

In August 1951, Carrie Glendora Keefer (nee Shipman), wife of Charles Donald Keefer of Sunbury, told Heber G. Gearhart (local genealogist) by phone, that her grandmother was "Betsy" Yoxtheimer who was married to Abraham Shipman. Further, that "Betsy" had a sister, Aunt Mercy Clark and that she had no further information about these two sisters.

- + 291 M i. Lemuel Shipman was born 15 Dec 1838 and died 2 Jan 1913.

Last Will of George Burns

8 April 1905

I, George Burns, of my own free will and accord, do appoint S. P. Burns, my only son, to settle up any worldly matters when I am dead, without bail or bond, and put my body in 'Mother Earth' where ever he pleases, Watsontown preferred. (You) will find enough money in the Selins Grove (bank?) to pay my funeral expenses; any stone shall be of solid stone 18 inches square and 3 feet high, with any name carved in the stone in letters of not less than 1 inch. The balance of my worldly possessions belong to S. P. Burns to do with what he pleases. Caution: Regards to the mortgage (sic), you live up to the letter of the mortgage -- don't give or take from the original.

George X Burns (his mark)

The following quoted material was found in the "Genealogical and Biographical Annals of Northumberland County Pennsylvania", by J. L. Floyd & Co., 1911:

"John Bloom, son of William, lived retired on his farm in Rockefeller township after a busy and useful career. He was born June 20, 1835, in Lower Augusta township, was reared to farm life, and followed farming throughout his active years, beginning on his own account when he reached his majority. He retired in 1907, and died Jan. 5, 1911. Mr. Bloom's farm, which is located on the Tulpehocken road, is an old-established business stand, formerly owned and conducted by William Deppen. After him one John Schmick had a tannery on the property, and a tavern was also conducted there in a stone house many years ago; it is probable that William Reeser ran the tavern at one time. Mr. Bloom always led a quiet and unassuming life, refusing all offers of public position. He was a Lutheran member of the Augustaville Church, to which his family belong.

On April 12, 1859, Mr. Bloom married Matilda Shipman, daughter of Abraham and Elizabeth (Yoxtheimer) Shipman, and ten children were born to their union, viz.: Valeria married William E. Bloom; Thamar married Daniel L. DeWitt; Irene married John F. Bloom; Flora died in childhood; Emma died at the age of twenty-nine years, unmarried; Charles S. died in infancy; George E. died in infancy; Ella married William E. Reitz; Lottie married Dr. John H. 294. Saul Shipman¹⁰ (Abraham Shipman, John Shipman, William Shipman, Harmon Shipman (Schuppmann), Herman) was born 4 Jan 1844 in Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania. He died¹¹ 23 Feb 1923 in Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried¹² in Eden Lutheran Church Cem., Plum Creek, Rockefeller Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

"Saul Shipman, son of Abraham, was born in Lower Augusta (In 1911 called Rockefeller) Township on January 4, 1844. Reared to labor on the farm, and in the saw and grist mills, with the limited educational advantages of a country school, in August, 1862, the darkest days of the Rebellion, he entered the Union army as a volunteer for nine months' service, in the old 5th Corps, participating in the campaigns of Antietam, Fredericksburg and Chancellorsville. After his discharge, at the end of his term of service, being in too delicate health for hard labor, he took a preparatory collegiate course in Freeburg (PA) Academy, but his limited means prevented him from going further. In 1864 he began his pedagogical career by taking charge of a public school in his own district.

In 1869 he was elected superintendent of schools of his native county, and reelected in 1872, serving six years in all. In this position he made a very efficient officer. Characterized as a hard worker, he followed up what he undertook with an energy and perseverance worthy of imitation. Punctual in all his appointments, he allowed nothing to interrupt the fulfillment of his engagements. By his thorough course he greatly elevated the grade of the schools of the county.

In the summer of 1870 he conducted a local normal school at Shamokin -- the first movement of the kind in this section of the country and a most gratifying success. He has the reputation of having been the most efficient examining officer that ever filled the position of school superintendent of this county; also, the credit of having held the best series of institutes ever held in the county. The annual reports prepared by him as superintendent of schools are concise, pithy, suggestive and outspoken documents and form a valuable contribution to the county school literature. An independent thinker, he is positive in his opinions and actions, conscientious in the discharge of duties, just and unyielding in what he believes to be right.

He is a member of the GAR, has served as secretary of church and joint councils; secretary of his own lodge, and representative to the grand lodge, IOOF; is sec-treas of Plum Creek Cemetery Company (incorporated), of which he was the organizer, and is now serving his nineteenth year, by annual election as secretary of a local mutual fire insurance company, incorporated. He resides in Rockefeller township, and is engaged in agricultural and horticultural pursuits, his work in these occupations being excellent object lessons, and his advice and suggestions eagerly sought by the most progressive people engaged in the same pursuits."

Saul married Lucinda Fasold, daughter of Jonathan Fasold and Catherine Bartholomew, on 13 Jul 1868 in Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania. Lucinda was born 20 Sep 1847. Anthony was reared on the homestead farm and received his education at the schools of the township. Early in life he learned the milling trade and followed the same for many years, working in Wilkesbarre for the Hilliard Brothers and at O. M. Martin, also for Beckle & Kantz on Middle creek. After working as a journeyman for several years, he rented the mill of W. W. Dewitt, of Lower Augusta township (where he had first learned his trade), which he operated until April 1, 1869. At that time he formed a partnership with John Campbell of Lower Augusta Township and purchased a grist mill in that township. They operated it for two years and he then purchased the interest of his partner and conducted the business individually until 1889. He then purchased an old powder mill and on August 1, 1869 he rented the same to William, John, Joseph and Christian Beury who improved the mill and engaged in the manufacture of powder. On April 1, 1876 Anthony Speece engaged in the manufacture of powder and after being in business only thirty days had an explosion with the loss of fifteen hundred dollars and the death of one of his employees, Richard Foulds. About two years later he rented the mill to Rothermal & Mowry and the powder business was sold to Lafin & Rand Powder Company.

299. Ira Shipman³⁵ (Abraham Shipman, John Shipman, William Shipman, Harmon Shipman (Schuppmann), Herman) was born 17 May 1854 in Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania. He died³⁶ 31 Aug 1909 in Sunbury, Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried 3 Sep 1909 in Pomfret Manor Cem., Catawissa Ave., Sunbury, Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

Ira Shipman, son of Abraham, was born in Lower Augusta (now Rockefeller) township, this county, May 17, 1854. It is a coincidence that the year of his birth was the year the office of county superintendent of schools, in which he served efficiently for six years, was established. He received his early education in the country schools near his birthplace, attended also at New Bloomfield, Perry County, and was later a student at the Freeburg Academy and the Shippensburg normal school. He began to teach at the age of seventeen and found his principal work in that profession to the end of his days. The first four years he was engaged in his native township, after which he was chosen a teacher for Sunbury, in which borough he followed his profession, as teacher, principal and superintendent, for nearly thirty years. There is hardly any one educator whose influence on the schools of the borough has been so strong or so lasting. In 1893 he was chosen county superintendent of schools, and held that office until 1899 after which, until his death, he was borough superintendent. At a meeting of the board of education held May 2, 1905, his term of office was extended for a period of three years, he being elected without opposition and at an increased salary. Had he lived, he would have entered upon the duties of principal of the Herndon (Northumberland county) schools, to which position he had been chosen, and which opened the day before his death. Such is a brief statement of the various capacities in which his services were given. Of his work, none who knew him had anything but words of praise. During his incumbency as superintendent the county schools were especially benefited, being graded and brought to a high state of efficiency, and he was equally zealous in his work at Sunbury. Indefatigable in his own efforts, he expected the same degree of industry and enthusiasm from all the teachers cooperating with him, but he was appreciative and just, winning their loyalty and support as well as their best exertions. He died August 31, 1909 at the age of fifty-five years, mourned by all who knew him. The following tribute explains itself:

"WHEREAS: Since the last meeting of the Northumberland County Teachers' Institute, God, in His allwise providence, has seen fit to remove, by death, from the ranks of our profession, Prof. Ira Shipman of the borough of Sunbury,

"WHEREAS: By the death of Prof. Shipman, the County has lost an educator who, by persistent effort, indefatigable work and intelligent application, placed himself at the head of the schools of the County and of the borough of Sunbury, and,

"WHEREAS: By the death of Prof. Shipman we have lost a sincere friend, a wise counselor, and a splendid leader in the positions which he so ably filled, a self-made man, attentive to his duties, a real help to the teachers, a model school man, and, as Dr. Schaeffer puts it, "One of the three great County Superintendents of the State"--the graded course of study, monthly reviews, final examinations, and the granting of diplomas, stand out as monuments of his work;

"THEREFORE: Be it resolved that we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family in its affliction, and commend it to Him who doeth all things well.

Be it further resolved: That these resolutions be recorded on the minutes of the Northumberland County Teachers' Institute, and that copies of the same be sent to the bereaved families." The document bears the signatures of the seven members of the Memorial committee.

It was not alone in the schools that Mr. Shipman served his community well. When a young man he studied surveying with his father, spending his holidays at the work, and in 1882 was appointed county surveyor to succeed E. M. Purdy, who had resigned, filling the position until the next election, in 1883. He also gained considerable knowledge of civil engineering under his father, and after his father's death became custodian of the notes of many important surveys. He attained a high reputation as a civil engineer, and served the borough of Sunbury in that capacity for five years, during which time the first section of street paving was laid there, under his supervision. He filled this position while teaching, resigning it in 1893, when elected county superintendent of schools. He was for a time borough regulator, and served Rockefeller township as Justice of the Peace.

Mr Shipman's life was in every respect an example of unselfish devotion to the ideals he cherished, and the strength of character he displayed in carrying out his plans, especially in his educational work, is referred to with pride by all who knew him. Thoughtfulness marked all his actions, even to the last. Realizing a few days before his death that the end was near, he made complete arrangements for his funeral and interment, sparing his family and friends as many of the sad duties as possible. He passed away at his home on Catawissa avenue (Sunbury) and was laid to rest in Pomfret Manor cemetery. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church from early life to the end of his days, but as the First Presbyterian church of Sunbury was undergoing repairs at the time of his decease the funeral services were held in the First Baptist church. Fraternally, Mr. Shipman held membership in Lodge No. 267, BPO Elks, the Sovereign Patriotic Knights, the IOOF, the POS of A and the Royal Arcanum.

Clyde never married. His job was that of Prohibition Officer, working for the federal government to prevent the illegal manufacture/sale of alcohol during Prohibition. He was his mother's favorite child. He supposedly died of typhoid fever from eating infected raw oysters and his mother died eleven days after his death. Family lore states she died of a broken heart. He built the house on the NE corner of 5th & Packer Streets in Sunbury for his parents; he lived there with them until his death. He was also in business with his brothers, Ralph, George and perhaps Pete. They started a wholesale and manufacturing potato chip/horseradish/mayonnaise business. It was located on the north side of Market Street between Third and Fourth Streets in Sunbury. Ralph was their route salesman and covered the area between Sunbury and the Coal Regions (Shamokin and other towns) selling their merchandise to grocery stores. Apparently it was just getting profitable when Ira Clyd died. It was dissolved shortly thereafter.

THE MURDER OF DAISY SMITH

OCTOBER 10, 1898

Location: BoyleTMs Run in Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., PA (just south of Sunbury)

It was Monday morning, Oct. 10th when Mr. Henry Smith was tending to the needs of a sick horse. He asked his 16 year old daughter, Daisy, to go to a nearby field and gather some sweet fern, which he wanted to mix with other herbs for the treatment of the animal. After a lengthy period of time, Daisy had not returned. When she was not in the house for lunch her father was concerned and went out to the field in search of his daughter. That was when he made the gruesome discovery that Daisy had been murdered. She was shot several times in the back and her neck was slashed from the base of one ear clear around her throat almost to her spine.

As the news of the tragedy swept over the farming community, it was immediately suspected that EDWARD CRESSINGER, 18 years old, knew something about Daisy™s mysterious death, due to his previous reputation. A year earlier he spent 30 days in jail for assaulting a young girl. After being questioned by the authorities Edward was taken to the jail in Sunbury, where he continued to protest that he was innocent.

The coroner and county detective gathered much evidence which appeared to be very damaging to the prisoner. Even his half sister, Essie Keiser, had a much different story of Cressinger™s whereabouts on the day of the murder than he himself had. The coroner felt he had plenty of evidence to hold the lad for trial. After being confronted with the facts of the found knife that was used in the murder, Edward made a confession. With the leak of information to the public the community was ready to lynch him without a trial.

Once a jury was selected, the trial got underway on Wed., Feb. 8, 1899. The prisoner pleaded not guilty. It was estimated that about 1200 spectators were present for the trial. In the courtroom, the aisles were packed; people were standing on the window sills and radiators. Even the attorneys and officials had to fight their way through the crowd to get to the front of the courtroom.

The counsels argued as to whether Edward™s confession could be used in court. The defense said it was obtained in a deceitful way, and that the prisoner was tricked into giving evidence against himself. After hearing the arguments of both sides, the judge allowed for the written confession to be read.

"I, Edward Cressinger, do voluntarily make this statement and confession, and have not been promised any favors, having made the same voluntarily, as my connection with the murder of Daisy Smith on the 10th day of October. After I came back from the store, as I told Dr. Shindel, also Miles Daugherty and J. L.Grimm, about 10 or 11 o™clock a. m. I got my gun and two loaded shells. Then I went up in the woods. I had my dog with me; he was hunting for rabbits. Then I got on Hen Smith™s ground and sat down at the corner of the woods. Then I shot to call my dog, then Daisy Smith came there. She told me I would get arrested for hunting rabbits there. I said I was not hunting rabbits. I went right up to where she was and told her I was not hunting for rabbits. Then I got quarreling with her, and she slapped me. Then I just held up my gun and shot her, being away about thirty yards. She hollered, then I killed her; I cut her throat. She got up after I cut her throat, wobbled around a couple of steps and fell over. Then I went home. The above is a true and correct statement given to J.L. Grimm and Miles Daugherty at the county jail office, Tuesday evening at 7:15, being the eleventh day of October, 1898.

Signed,
Edward Cressinger"

(Note: On the night before his death, the warden spent considerable time with Cressinger. He once again gave a lengthy account of his terrible crime, which was about the same as his written confession. Only this time he did not mention being slapped by Daisy. He said he had referred to that because one time they were walking home from church and they had words, and she slapped him in the face. Ever since that time, which was over a year earlier, he held spite. He stated positively that Daisy was never closer than forty yards to him.)

Shortly after the confession was read, the Commonwealth rested their case. But the defense used the line of insanity of the prisoner, giving examples of family mental problems and that from his infancy Edward was a moral derelict & a sexual pervert. He was also a man of a very low degree of intellect. On Saturday afternoon, the 11th of February, the jury found Edward Cressinger guilty of murder in the 1st degree. His counsel made an immediate motion for a new trial. They had 30 days to file the petition.

After the defense submitted 8 points of why the Cressinger murder case deserved a new trial, the judge overruled the motion, stating that he believed the prisoner was tried fairly and the verdict was a just one. On Saturday, May 13th, 1899 the prisoner was once again brought to court and stood before the judge. These were his words: æEdward Cressinger, you have been convicted of the murder of Daisy Smith, the jury having found you guilty in the first degree. She never done you any harm; you met her in a lonely spot, while she was in a weak and helpless condition when compared with your manly strength, and the deed, which stands almost without a parallel, was done without any provocation whatsoever. Nothing remains for the Court but, to carry out the law..œœ The sentence of the Court is that you be taken back to jail and from there to the place of execution, where you shall hang by the neck until you are dead, and may the Lord have mercy on your soul.

Edward™s attorneys appealed to the Governor for a respite. But the pardon board refused the application for a commutation of sentence. That meant that Cressinger™s execution would be carried out to the letter on January 3, 1900. The gallows would be borrowed from Dauphin County and very few would be allowed in attendance to witness the execution.

Isaac Cressinger visited with his son the morning of the execution but chose to stay inside while it took place. Henry Smith, father of Daisy, stood with the viewers in the front of the scaffold. At 10:29 a.m. the trap door fell and Edward Cressinger entered into eternity. He was the first minor to be hanged legally in the state of Pennsylvania.

Edward was laid to rest on Thursday, January 4th, 1900 in the orchard near the Cressinger home. The same people who mourned at the funeral of Daisy Smith shed tears over the casket of this young man whose life also ended in tragedy.

"Delmer F. Campbell was born Feb. 13, 1864, in Lower Augusta township, son of John Campbell. He obtained his early education in the local schools, and later attended summer Normal sessions at Dalmatia and Milton, then taught by the county superintendent and one Professor Geho, both men of high education, the latter a graduate of Princeton. When twenty-one years old Mr. Campbell received a license to teach public school in the county, and has taught fourteen terms in all, eleven in his native township, - six years of this period in what is now Rockefeller township, which was then a part of Lower Augusta; one term in the high school at Herndon; two terms in Lower Mahanoy. He is well remembered by pupils and fellow teachers as an educator of high repute, and he was always in demand while engaged in the profession. He has been a farmer from young manhood, and followed farming in the summer season while teaching. On Feb. 23, 1908, he came into possession of his father's homestead, upon which he now resides, devoting himself to the cultivation of this large tract, which contains 175 acres. He is active in church life, however, being a prominent member of the Mountain Presbyterian Church, which he has served as elder since he was twenty-two years old; he was treasurer of the church four years, and has filled all the Sunday school offices.

On June 23, 1890, Mr. Campbell married Tomson Speece, one of the seventeen children born to Anthony and Ann (Shipman) Speece, of Little Mahanoy township, the latter a daughter of Abraham Shipman, who served as associate judge of Northumberland county. To Mr. and Mrs. Delmar F. Campbell have also been born seventeen children, and another daughter of Anthony S. and Ann (Shipman) Speece, Effie, wife of Ambrose DeWitt, also of Lower Augusta township, has the same number. Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania. He died 27 Apr 1919 in Boyles Run, Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried²⁴⁸ in Mountain Presbyterian Church Cem., Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

In the enumeration of the 1880 federal census for Lower Augusta Township, Northumberland County, Salathiel was listed as a farmer, head of household, 31 years of age. Reverend R. Fisher baptized Lydia. She was received into the communion of the German Reformed Church (Elias Church) on 23 April 1864. Her marriage to Salathiel was performed by Reverend W. A. Haas. Reverend Schneider officiated at the funeral of Lydia. A Fraktur, printed in colors by Moser & Peters, Carlisle, Pa., in 1823 was used to record the birth and baptism of Lydia. The information applicable to her was filled in by hand. The certificate was passed down until in 1999 it was finally framed by the Nancy Joy Smith Hendricks, spouse of John Shipman Hendricks, a great grandson of Lydia. The framed document is in German and measures 16" x 20" and hangs in the office (2002) of John Shipman Hendricks in Vero Beach, Florida. Minnie, the youngest child of Salathiel & Lydia, was a very attractive young lady. She never married and died a spinster, living with her sister, Sally. It is apparent however, that as a young lady of 28 years, she was much involved with a man by the name of "LeRoy" who was in prison for a time. Her personal records contained the following letter which was written in prison and postmarked July 19, 1912 in Shamokin, Northumberland County, Pennsylvania:

"Sunbury, Pa.

July 18-'12,

Dear Sweetheart,

Received your letter and was very glad to hear from you. I thought that you were not going to answer as the time goes so long down here. It is very warm here and I am getting poor but when I get out I will make up for all I lost. Sweetheart, I mean every word that I ever wrote to you and hope that you are in earnest to. Kid, if you do what is right there is no one can part us and as for my future wife, Lillian and I are done. I only have 24 days yet and then I will be free. Believe me kid, I am near out of my mind here in this hot cell where you don't get no air. I have a lot to tell you when I see you, Sweetheart and you will be surprised to know what it is. Sweetheart do you think you would be satisfied to link your life with mine? I am sure that I am and hope the same from you. Kid, can't I be more than a Cousin to you. Drop me a honest letter and tell me Kid. Don't leave me in suspense. Well, Kid, I must close for this time as it is late.

Love you, Your Future H.

A Good-night kiss in memory of by-gone days."

They had the following children:

- 1222 M i. Jay D. "Andy" Andrews was born about 1916 in Bloom, Kansas. He died 28 Oct 2004 in Yorktown, Virginia.

On 23 January 1996, in a letter to the compiler, Jay D. Andrews provided the following personal biographical data.

"I am 79 years of age. I obtained a Ph D. in Zoology at the University of Wisconsin, mostly earned in the late 1930s, but my degree was awarded in 1946 after 4 years in the Army in the Asiatic theatre. I taught graduate courses in fisheries for about 20 years for the College of William & Mary. I retired as Senior Biologist from the Virginia Institute of Marine Science, a department of William & Mary, in 1983, age 67. I did research on oyster culture and diseases of oysters for 42 years. I have about 100 scientific publications on shell fisheries. I was born at Bloom, Kansas not far from Dodge City where my grandfather homesteaded in 1885. I have a degree in agriculture from Kansas State College in Manhattan, Kansas. I did not get to work until I was 30 years old in 1946. I bought a copy of the Fisher book sometime in the early 1940s. My ancestor, Jacob Andrews, was an English soldier we think, who stayed in this country and settled in Greenwich Township, Warren County, New Jersey. He had a bunch of sons some of whom served in the Army after the Revolution. Christopher Andrews married Mary Shipman the youngest daughter of Harmon. They moved to Northumberland County, Pennsylvania before 1810. I have less data on my Andrews ancestors than on Shipmans, because this is so common a name that one must do research on living sites which was New Jersey where I never did much searching. I have two grown children ages 41 and 43, both unmarried. I had three sisters, two still living, but my son is the last of the Andrews in my clan for several generations. My hobbies are wildflowers and bird societies, and classical music, but Dilley genealogy tends to consume my time these days. I began my genealogical searching in the late 1930s after taking a course in Eugenics, which subject is frowned upon these days. There was a streak of susceptibility to TB in my Straney line from a great grandfather, Silas Wright, a blacksmith whose 7 daughters all died of consumption around 40 years of age. My father and grandfather both lived to be 94 years of age, but I am dubious about living that long. My father was active in genealogy in his later years. (Signed) Jay D. Andrews"

On February 17, 1996 Jay D. "Andy" Andrews wrote another snail mail letter to the Compiler, John Shipman Hendricks. (Andy and John are 4th cousins):

"Dear John,

I am highly pleased with the unique and sole version of the Shipman Clan that you sent to me. You have mastered desk-top publishing. I like your style very much. It includes numerous features that I have not achieved in my genealogies. Computers were just coming into research when I retired in 1983. I will mention several features that I like about the account. Your equipment allows use of both sides of the paper--do I detect a better grade of paper than ordinary bond? The bold lettering of the names allows you to use the full width of the page, whereas, I must indent to show generations as in the Fisher book. The small super-script used to designate generations is very useful. If my machine can do it, I am not aware how. I have been scornful of programmed genealogy, because most of the samples that I have seen, don't facilitate including family history. You have done this very well in a pleasing manner.

I never once thought that you would own the original Fisher book because they are scarce. The first item you sent me that you call descendants 27 near the end of the book, led me to believe that this was your major effort; how wrong I was. I never quite realized how close you and Dick (Goss) were attached to Sunbury, PA, but you both grew up there, and you had many relatives and ancestors who lived there. I think everyone has a strong attachment to the site of their youth. I do, although I left Bloom, Kansas at age 17 in 1934 and never lived there again. It is really a desolate country much of the time. My father lived there nearly all of his 94 years.

Whereas, I thought that your Descendants of Harmon Sr. would involve many family names, I find nearly all the families are only one generation away from a Shipman family. I suppose that you had this set of Shipman and relatives on your computer and the PAF program allowed you to easily insert new names such as Andrews. In your software retrieval is it easy with the individual numbers? You probably have a hard disk with unlimited space to save each version.

I am going to give you Mary K. (McCarty) Weese' telephone and address in the event you wish to contact her. They are: 11100 Sharrott Rd., North Lima, OH, 44452; and Telephone: 216/549-5383.

The "Miser Notes" was the only title on Mrs. Weese's birth and burial records for Shipmans. At the top of the first page was written Shipman and p 192. It runs to 11 pages. It is hand-written but easy reading print style. She sent a copy of the History of Dauphin, Co., PA, Vol III, in which are biographies of Obadiah Campbell and Cullen Frazer Shipman. There are some Fishers and Shipmans involved too. She also sent Early Marriages 1675-1875. She has not replied to my letter of a month ago.

I am sending you a copy of my Harmon Shipman Clan account. Your version of Fisher's Shipman Clan will be much easier to use than mine. I hope some of the other material may be of help to you; you are free to use it as you please. I have sent copies to the Sunbury Genealogy Society and the Genealogy Library at Belvidere, NJ. I hope that you will distribute your account when ready to appropriate sites.

Your account is very attractive. I applaud your style, and I sincerely thank you for sharing your data with me in this version. I now feel that Shipman research is in good hands, and I will count on you and Dick to extend our knowledge. If I can help, let me know.

I enjoyed reading about your close families which provide some background on your life and abilities. My hobbies are quite different than your, except for the writing that you do so well. I just finished checking a manuscript on a disease of oysters to be published in a book. I have done gardening intensively since 1960. I have spent much time removing hardwoods from the planted pines with a chain saw, and I paint the stumps with Roundup. I had a slight stroke a week ago, which will change my timber activity now. After Echo cardigraph, carotia scans and T-section of the head, the doctor found no cause for my "stroke". I am OK

Sincerely yours,
Jay D. Andrews
Andy

"Daniel L. DeWitt, son of William W. DeWitt, was born July 18, 1856, in the old log cabin at DeWitt's Mill, in Hollowing Run, and he has spent all his life at that place. His early education was obtained in the local common schools, and later he attended the Missionary Institute (now Susquehanna University) at Selinsgrove. When eighteen years old he entered the mill, and from that time until his father's retirement assisted him, learning the business thoroughly, both manufacturing and management. In 1886 he became owner and proprietor of this famous establishment, which has been a milling property ever since the development of the section began. It was originally built about 1785, the first mill in Lower Augusta region or anywhere in this section, pioneer settlers from a wide territory bringing their grain to be ground. The original building still stands, but new gearing has been put in several times. It is a landmark in the community. Henry Masser owned it for some time, and Jonathan Harman succeeded him, the DeWitts having owned it since Mr. Harmon's time. A forty-acre tract of land is connected with the mill property, and Mr. DeWitt has this farm under excellent and profitable cultivation. He has served as supervisor of his township, and for many years as deacon of the New Lutheran Church, of which he and his family are members. In politics he is a Democrat. A man of pleasant and genial disposition, he is a good companion and an intelligent, entertaining conversationalist. On April 10, 1881, Mr. DeWitt married Thamer E. The following quoted material was found in "Genealogical and Biographical Annals of Northumberland County Pennsylvania", J. L. Floyd & Co., 1911:

"Delmer F. Campbell was born Feb. 13, 1864, in Lower Augusta township, son of John Campbell. He obtained his early education in the local schools, and later attended summer Normal sessions at Dalmatia and Milton, then taught by the county superintendent and one Professor Geho, both men of high education, the latter a graduate of Princeton. When twenty-one years old Mr. Campbell received a license to teach public school in the county, and has taught fourteen terms in all, eleven in his native township, - six years of this period in what is now Rockefeller township, which was then a part of Lower Augusta; one term in the high school at Herndon; two terms in Lower Mahanoy. He is well remembered by pupils and fellow teachers as an educator of high repute, and he was always in demand while engaged in the profession. He has been a farmer from young manhood, and followed farming in the summer season while teaching. On Feb. 23, 1908, he came into possession of his father's homestead, upon which he now resides, devoting himself to the cultivation of this large tract, which contains 175 acres. It is located between Fisher's Ferry and Trevorton, in the southeast corner of Lower Augusta township, along the Little Mountains. He is an enterprising and progressive man, and has found farming very profitable. Like his father Mr. Campbell is a Democrat in politics, but he has never cared for public preferment and has taken no part in public affairs. He is active in church life, however, being a prominent member of the Mountain Presbyterian Church, which he has served as elder since he was twenty-two years old; he was treasurer of the church four years, and has filled all the Sunday school offices.

On June 23, 1890, Mr. Campbell married Tomson Speece, one of the seventeen children born to Anthony and Ann (Shipman) Speece, of Little Mahanoy township, the latter a daughter of Abraham Shipman, who served as associate judge of Northumberland county. To Mr. and Mrs. Delmar F. Campbell have also been born seventeen children, and another daughter of Anthony S. and Ann (Shipman) Speece, Effie, wife of Ambrose DeWitt, also of Lower Augusta township, has the same number. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell are the parents of: Myrtle A., Ada V. (whose birthday is on Dec. 7th, her grandfather Campbell's birthday), Don Lee, Grover, John Anthony (named after both his grandfathers), Goldie, Ora, Alvin, Fay, Vera (who died of measles when three years old), Russell, Ethel, Lloyd, Elsworth, Elwood, Marvin and Theodore A."

Ralph received a public school education in Sunbury and later attended the State Normal School in Bloomsburg (subsequently called Bloomsburg State Teacher's College and later, still Bloomsburg University). He matriculated at Worcester Polytechnic Institute, in Worcester, Massachusetts for his engineering training. He graduated from the latter institution in 1903 as a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering. He then returned to Sunbury and began his career as an automobile mechanic. His inventive mind led to the experimentation with automobile carburetors in the opening years of the twentieth century and many of his ideas were patented and subsequently used by Buick, Nash, Olds, Willys and other auto manufacturers. In 1922 he erected his own plant at Front and Reagan streets where he carried forward his work for the remaining twenty years of his life.

Obituary of Ralph Shipman

"In the death of Ralph Shipman, Sunbury inventor and manufacturer, the Susquehanna Valley lost a genius who throughout a long and useful career was more vitally interested in improving the lot of his fellow man than in garnering personal wealth or fame. Had he been a self-seeker, his pioneering on the first carburetor for motor cars would have made him immense wealth. The fact is that he was possessed of a keen exploratory mind and to solve a major problem with an invention that lightened labor, increased the safety factor or added to production was but a natural expression of his unusual talents and material reward was a secondary matter. Evidence of his genius is found in that fact that there is no accurate record of the number of inventions he had perfected, although patent rights were granted for the great majority of them. He was a benefactor in many ways and one of the satisfactions he achieved was his ability to materially aid his country in its hour of greatest need in the production of vital materials at the machine works which he developed as an outlet for his insatiable desire to be creatively useful."

Returning to Sunbury, he began teaching music, violin and piano, and has since devoted himself to teaching and orchestra work, usually having about fifty pupils in Sunbury. He plays in the Chestnut street theatre and at Armory Hall, in Sunbury, and is the director of Campbell's Orchestra, of Sunbury, which he organized in 1905 and has led ever since. This is an ambitious musical organization and very popular throughout this region. Mr. Campbell has been notably successful in his chosen work, to which he is enthusiastically devoted, and he has labored faithfully to establish and uphold the most worthy musical standards in his community.

She died 8 Jan 1955 in Sunbury, Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried in Herndon Cem., Jackson Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

Sallie Rebecca Shipman married Edward Otto of Otto's Landing, Lower Augusta Township, Pennsylvania. They lived at Otto's Landing where Edward owned substantial amounts of property and railroad cars until the stock market/bank crash in 1929 at which time they lost most of their wealth. Edward was committed to a Pennsylvania State Hospital for several years. Sallie opened a small luncheonette at the railroad station in Sunbury, Pennsylvania. She and her unmarried sister, Minnie Frances Shipman continued this endeavor for the balance of their lives. Edward was released from the hospital in the late 1940's and lived at the store with Sallie and Minnie.

Sallie married³⁵⁵ Edward Joseph Otto³⁵⁶, son of Washington Otto and Harriet D. Bower, on 16 Apr 1903. Edward was born 11 Feb 1877 in Herndon, Otto's Landing, Pennsylvania. He died 15 May 1960 in Sunbury, Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried in Herndon Cem., Jackson Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

Edward was educated in the public schools. His father trained him to business life, it being his wish that his sons, Edward and John should succeed him in his mercantile enterprises. John died at the age of twenty-five and the management of the business fell upon the shoulders of the younger brother, Edward, who continues (as of 1911) to carry on the various lines established by his father, comprising the trade in coal, bark and railroad ties. The various other branches of his business he has added himself as opportunity offered or demand warranted, and he now has an excellent patronage in the original lines and also in grain and allied commodities. He handles from 150 to 200 rail carloads annually of the various products he carries, his place being the business center for a wide territory. His lumber is shipped largely into the coal regions, for use at the mines. In addition to other things, he handles farm implements. He keeps three men employed regularly to assist him in looking after the numerous details of his various interests. He has been station agent at Otto for some time, having succeeded his brother, Abraham L. (who was the first agent at the station) in that position. Mr. Otto owns his father's old homestead farm of 140 acres, located at Otto (in Jackson Township) and he cultivates this land. In the spring of 1904, because of failing health, he gave up the farm work, selling his large farm stock, but having regained his health he resumed the management and operation of the place in the spring of 1909. He erected his beautiful residence at Otto in 1903. There are few citizens of the locality busier than he, but he has nevertheless found time to serve his fellow citizens in local office, having been tax collector from 1906 to 1909, and in the spring of the latter year he was elected roadmaster of Jackson Township.

On April 12, 1918, Edward registered with the Local Draft Board at Sunbury, Pennsylvania for the federal draft of 1917-1918. His registration form indicates he was 41 years of age at the time and he was self employed as a farmer. He listed his wife, Sallie Otto, as his nearest relative.

Mr Otto and his family are members of St. Peter's Reformed Church at Mahanoy, and socially he unites with Lafayette Lodge, No. 194, of Selinsgrove, Pa. He is a Republican in political matters. The foregoing text was extracted from the "Genealogical and Biographical Annals of Northumberland County, Pennsylvania" J. L. Floyd & Co., 1911, p538-9. It should be noted that the compiler of this record, John Shipman Hendricks (grand-nephew of Sallie Rebecca Shipman Otto, wife of Edward J. Otto), personally knew and spent many hours talking with Edward J. Otto in the latter years of his Edward's life. These conversations occurred during the years 1946-9 at a time when Edward Otto's life had changed substantially.

From 1904 through 1929 the many and varied businesses of Edward Otto had been greatly expanded. His holdings were extensive. He owned his own rail car for transportation, he had many carriages and was considered to be one of the wealthiest merchants in the area. From 1926 through 1929 he traded heavily in commodities and stocks on the New York Stock Exchange. In October of 1929, when the stock market crashed, his financial empire collapsed. He lost all of his businesses, his home and his health. During 1930 he was committed to the State Mental Hospital at Danville, Pennsylvania. He remained a patient in treatment for the next nine years. During this time, in 1937, his wife, Sallie and her spinster sister, Minnie, opened a small luncheonette at the railroad station in Sunbury, Pa. They continued their operation of this activity for the next 25 years until their deaths. In 1939-40, Edward was released from the State Hospital and returned to Sunbury where he spent all of his waking hours sitting in a very large rocking chair at the rear of the luncheonette. He was constantly using pencil and paper, calculating weights and measures, commodity strategies, and rail arrivals & departures. His discussions were most often about the railroads. As a young man in my teens, I was working during the summer months on a Pennsylvania Railroad construction crew, traveling and living in a railcar five days each week. On Fridays, when I would return for the weekend, I would always stop at the luncheonette and talk with "Aunt Sallie and Uncle Ed". His advice was always the same, ". . . stay with railroad and you will prosper . . . "

On April 15, 1953, the Sunbury Daily Item carried the following article:

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Otto Wed Half Century

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Otto, of 309 Pennsylvania avenue, are today observing their golden wedding anniversary with a trip to Albany, New York, to visit their son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. John Otto, and a granddaughter, Mrs. Jean Jones, mother of the couple's great grandson, Gary Jones, four years old. The couple was married April 16, 1903, at the parsonage of the Reformed church in Red Cross, by the Rev. Aaron Hottenstein, then pastor. Mrs. Otto is the former Sally Shipman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Salathiel Shipman, of Boyles Run, and Mr. Otto is a son of the late Washington Otto, after whom was named this rural community, east of Sunbury, known as Otto's Station, where Edward Otto was station agent for the Reading Railroad from 1900 to 1932 while also conducting a coal and grain business there. Mr. and Mrs. Otto came to Sunbury in 1932 and Mr. Otto opened a small grocery and lunch room business in the building which they now occupy at 309 Pennsylvania avenue. Mr. Otto has one sister living, Mrs. George Wilson, of Elizabeth, New Jersey and the other remaining members of Mrs. Otto's family are a sister, Miss Minnie Shipman, who resides with the couple, and a brother, Galen Shipman of Shamokin. The couple is in good health and anticipate a pleasant visit with their only son and his family in Albany.

Edward and Sallie had the following children:

- 1747 M i. John William Otto was born 24 Aug 1903 in Otto, Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania. He died 17 Aug 1968 in Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried³⁵⁷ in Herndon Cem., Herndon, Jackson Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

Shipman, Isaac Shipman, Harmon Shipman, Nicholas Shipman, Harmon Shipman (Schuppmann), Herman) was born 1 Oct 1880 in Boyles Run, Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania. He died³⁵⁸ 18 Mar 1909 in Fishers Ferry, Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried³⁵⁹ in Mountain Presbyterian Church Cem., Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

Horatio was a young farmer who had just married when, on March 7th of 1909, he fell ill with Typhoid Fever which was in epidemic proportions at that time in central Pennsylvania. During his illness he was attended by Dr. G. F. Yarmiger. This is the same doctor who signed the death certificate certifying the cause of death just eleven days later on March 18, 1909. The funeral director was the John Wert Funeral Home, Seven Points, Pennsylvania. Horatio's only daughter, Maude Edna, was not born until 2 months following his death.

Horatio married³⁶⁰ Ida Almeda Heim, daughter of George Hiram Wayne and Amelia Estella "Stella" Heim, on 24 Dec 1908 in Sunbury, Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania. Ida was born 13 Jun 1888 in Fishers Ferry, Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland County, Pennsylvania. She died³⁶¹ 28 Jan 1942 in Sunbury, Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was buried³⁶² in Mountain Presbyterian Church Cem., Lower Augusta Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

Shortly after the death of her husband and then the birth of her daughter, Maude Edna Shipman (June 22, 1909), Ida Ameda Heim Shipman took employment as housekeeper for one George Otto at 607 North 4th Street, Sunbury, Pennsylvania. She subsequently married George Otto and had another child, Palmer Wilson Otto. Palmer was half-brother to Maude Edna Shipman & also half-brother to Mildred Otto Collins (a daughter of George Otto and his first wife). The death notice for Ida appeared in the local newspaper, the Sunbury Daily Item as follows:

"DEATH CALL MRS IDA OTTO

Mrs. Ida Otto, wife of George Otto, of 607 N. Fourth street (Sunbury), died at 6 o'clock Wednesday night after a long period of ill health. She had been bed-fast, however, only since Sunday night. She was 53 years of age. She was born June 13, 1888 in Lower Augusta township, the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Hiram Wayne. She is survived by her husband, who is employed by the Pa. Duerr, pastor of St. Luke's church will officiate and burial will be in the Mountain Presbyterian church cemetery near Augustaville."

It should be noted that Ida Ameda (nee Heim) Shipman Otto is buried next to her first husband, Horatio Shipman in the Mountain Presbyterian Church, Lower Augusta Township, Northumberland County, Pennsylvania. Fishers Ferry, Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania. She died¹⁶⁷ 10 Feb 1970 in Geisinger Medical Center, Danville, Montour Co., Pennsylvania and was buried¹⁶⁸ 13 Feb 1970 in Pomfret Manor Cem., Catawissa Ave., Sunbury, Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

Maude never knew her father. His death, two months prior to her birth, deprived her of a father/daughter relationship that was evident throughout her life. Although her mother, Ida Ameda Heim, re-married to George Otto who had recently lost his wife to death, Maude maintained a very close relationship to her Shipman relatives in the Northumberland County area. As a young woman, she resisted an adoption by her stepfather and retained her Shipman surname. The real irony of her reluctant relationship with her stepfather was never known by her and was not learned by the compiler until many years after her death. In the 1990, through research of the ancestral records, her son, John Shipman Hendricks (compiler of this record) learned that an actual blood relationship did exist between Maude and her step-father. They were actually 7th cousins, 2 times removed -- their common ancestors were Nicholas Faeg and Anna Margaretha Koch. If only Maude had know, her step-father was also a distant cousin!

Maude worked in war production at the Westinghouse Plant in Sunbury, Pennsylvania during World War II while her husband, John was in the Navy. In 1949 she was employed by L'Aigon Apparel in Northumberland, PA and continued working as a Presser for that firm until her death in 1969 (heart attack). She was an active Union Leader and was the Shop Steward for the IGW Union Local. Her vacations were always spent at Atlantic City, NJ where she enjoyed the beach and sun. Maude died in Geisinger Medical Center and is buried in Pomfort Manor Cemetery, Section K, Lot 301. Her obituary reads as follows:

She was a member of St. Luke's Lutheran Church, Sunbury, and was a very active member of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union. Shipman, Isaac Shipman, Harmon Shipman, Nicholas Shipman, Harmon Shipman (Schuppmann), Herman) was born³¹ 7 Apr 1931 in N 4th St, , Sunbury, Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was christened 5 Aug 1931 in N Awl Street, Sunbury, Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania by Rev. Deurr.

John Shipman Hendricks was born and raised in Sunbury, Pennsylvania. Aside from three years in a one-room school house in the rural area outside Tamaqua, Schuylkill County, (at the foot of the MacAdoo Mountain) he attended and was graduated from the Sunbury school system June 1950. On April 10, 1949 John was confirmed in Zion Lutheran Church in Sunbury, Pennsylvania by Rev. Carl A. Honeycutt (Source: Certificate of Confirmation in possession of the Compiler).

When the Korean War broke out two weeks after he graduated from high school, he enlisted in the United States Marine Corps for a four year "hitch" on July 3, 1950. John's Serial Number in the Marine Corps was xxxx831. Following "boot camp" training at Parris Island, South Carolina, he was assigned to the 3rd Marine Division at Camp Lejuene, North Carolina where he was trained as a Scout/Sniper. He was then transferred to the recruit depot at San Diego, California, then Camp Pendleton for combat training. During years 1952-1953 he served with the First Marine Division (G-2 Staff) as a courier to company units and later was assigned as an Interrogator - Writer and then as the Noncommissioned Officer in charge of the Division Board of Awards of the First Marine Division. While serving in the latter capacity in Korea, he was promoted to Staff Sergeant and was awarded the Navy Letter of Commendation for his work with the First Marine Division Board of Awards. The Commendation reads as follows:

United State Marine Corps
Headquarters
1st Marine Division (Reinf) FMF
c/o Fleet Post Office

San Francisco, California

The Commanding General, 1st Marine Division (Reinf) FMF, takes pleasure in commending
STAFF SERGEANT JOHN S. HENDRICKS
UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS

for service as set forth in the following

CITATION:

"For excellent service in the line of his profession while serving with a Marine division during operations against the enemy in KOREA from 28 October 1952 to 25 June 1953. Serving as the Writer and later as Noncommissioned Officer in Charge of the division board of awards, Staff Sergeant HENDRICKS displayed a high degree of professional competence in the performance of his duties. Through his excellent ability in composing citations, he devised new and better methods whereby the recommended awards were more expeditiously prepared. His skill and knowledge of technical terms were contributing factors in the rapid preparation of awards to be presented to personnel of the division. For a period of two months he performed the duties of the officer in charge and continued as Writer in an outstanding manner although overburdened with the voluminous amount of correspondence and awards recommendations received by the section. During the period just prior to the change of division commanders, he worked unceasingly to process the numerous awards for the Commanding General's signature. Although the billet held by him was previously filled by a commissioned officer, he carried out his assignments with great success. The work he produced was a contributing factor to the excellent morale that was evident throughout the entire division. Staff Sergeant HENDRICKS' determined efforts and selfless devotion to duty were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service."

Commendation Metal Pendant with Combat "V" is herewith Authorized.

R. McC.PATE, Major General

U. S. Marine Corps, Commanding

Upon return to the United States he was stationed at Quantico, Virginia as a Grading Instructor in School Troops section of the Officer Candidate School. He was discharged from the regular Marine Corps July 2, 1954 and immediately enlisted in the Marine Corps Reserve for an additional three year term. In the USMCR he was billeted at the Williamsport, Pennsylvania U. S. Marine Corps Reserve Motor Pool.

In September 1954 he enrolled at Susquehanna University on the GI Bill. While attending S. U. , he also attended Bucknell University at Lewisburg, Pennsylvania (the campuses are 18 miles apart) in order to accelerate his studies and graduate in three years. He graduated in June 1957 and had maintained a Dean's List status in 11 of the 12 reporting periods. In July of 1957 he was honorably discharged from the U. S. Marine Corps Reserves. During November 1955 he had met Nancy Joy Smith of Philadelphia on a "blind date" on campus at Susquehanna. In April of the following year (1956) they married. During this time frame, he simultaneously held three part-time jobs: (1) Lifeguard at Rolling Green Swimming Pool, Selinsgrove, PA, (2) Field Surveyor for Politz Research Co. and (3) Field Reporter for Dun & Bradstreet. While attending Susquehanna University, he was a member of the Bond and Key Club (subsequently became a chapter of the Lambda Chi Alpha national fraternity) and the Pi Gamma Mu National Social Science Honor Society (fraternity). John was also a Life Member of the Veteran's of Foreign War, Post 1532 in Sunbury, Pennsylvania and the American Legion.

Following graduation from Susquehanna University, he was employed by Dun & Bradstreet as a Field Reporter covering the Del-Mar-Va (Delaware-Maryland-Virginia) Peninsula. At this time, he and his wife and new-born son, Palmer, resided in Hanover, PA. He was then promoted to Analytical Reporter and subsequently to Service Manager of the York, Pennsylvania office of Dun & Bradstreet. The promotion prompted a move to York, Pennsylvania. Shortly thereafter he accepted a position as Office Manager with Shipley Humble, Division of York-Shipley in York. He was ultimately a Vice-President of that firm. In 1960 he returned to Susquehanna University where he served one year as Director of Alumni Relations. After five additional years with the York-Shipley organization, in 1969 he accepted a position as Vice President and General Manager of Phillips Fuel Company in Hackensack, New Jersey. In 1972, he was elected President of that company and also served as Vice President of a related firm, J & J Terminals, Inc (in this company he was a 50% owner). In 1984 he sold the companies and retired at age 54.

John was a licensed private pilot who held a Multi-Engine rating and an Instrument rating (Certificate Number xxxxx7822 dated 9/16/75). Prior to his retirement, he owned and operated his own Cessna 337 and many of his vacations were spent flying his family to areas from the Florida Keys to the New England area.

His activities in retirement included golf, fishing, boating, computers, photography, and genealogical research. As a result of the ongoing research, John compiled a database of ancestors and relatives that exceeded 138,000 (March 2006) linked individuals. This total compilation resulted in the publishing of the following books:

Historical Society, Sunbury, PA.

From 1985 through 1999 John and Nancy spent approximately eight months each year at Barefoot Bay, Florida and four months in New Jersey at the shore property in Sea Bright, New Jersey. In October 2000 they sold both properties and purchased a home in Vero Beach, Florida. As a resident Floridian, John spent much of his time researching his ancestry. He was very active in the local Indian River Genealogical Society and taught other seniors how to use the genealogy program, Personal Ancestral File (PAF).

John married Nancy Joy Smith, daughter of Paul Copenhaver Smith and Anna Margaret Frantz, on 21 Apr 1956 in Memorial Chapel, Valley Forge, Pennsylvania. Nancy was born 2 May 1934 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia Co., Pennsylvania and was christened 8 Jun 1941 in Mt. Carmel Presbyterian Church, Edge Hill, Montgomery Co., Pennsylvania.

Nancy Joy Smith was born at the family home on Granite Street in Philadelphia, PA. She had red hair and blue eyes at birth and throughout her life (only a few gray hairs even at 60!). Shortly after birth, her family moved to 1211 Hasbrook Street, Lawndale, in Philadelphia where she lived until she was six years of age. In 1942 the family moved to 356 Central Avenue in North Hills, Abington Township, Montgomery County, PA. There on the corner of Central and Spruce Street the rest of her childhood was spent until her marriage to John Hendricks. The happy couple then moved to 1068 Reagon Street in Sunbury where they lived in a apartment on the second floor of Grandma Hendrick's house.

Nancy was baptized by Rev. Howard J. Bell at Mount Carmel Presbyterian Church and was promoted from the Primary Department of Sunday School through all the different levels of Sunday School classes and was a member of the Senior Choir. She attended North Hills Elementary School and has fond memories for the school down the street that is no longer there. The same is true with Weldon Junior High School which is gone and even the Abington High School which was replaced. Our house was always full of our friends and we had Quoits and Badminton in the yard under lights. The basement had Ping Pong and a record player and there was always a Monopoly game under the living room couch.

Some memories of World War II from a child's view: " I remember the beginning of WWII and the attack on Pearl Harbor. We had a little radio in the kitchen and we heard President Roosevelt make the announcement. "Today is a day of Infamy" It was a shock for all of us . We stood behind our troops, had parades for them and were so very proud of them. We saved our money for Saving Stamps and took it to school. If we filled enough books, we could get War Bonds. Many kids grew up and used those bonds for a start of marriage or for their education. My Mom worked for the Red Cross and my Dad was an Air Raid Warden. We had to have 'black out' blinds at the windows so no light would come through. If the air raid alarm went off, we had a 'black out'. This was very serious because there were actually German ships and subs off the east coast of the U.S. Many things were rationed, rubber, steel, butter, meat and other products. People got 'Ration Stamps' and the amount you got were dependant on the number of people in your family. My Dad got a new car, a Plymouth, and it didn't have a bit of chrome. Also, margarine was invented. It looked like lard but came with a little capsule filled with yellow color that you mixed in so it looked like butter. It was awful. Also, sugar was rationed so there wasn't a lot of jelly to cover the taste. Silk stockings were hard to get because the silk came from Japan. Nylon was invented but it was used in the 'War Effort'. People didn't complain because these things they gave up were for a good cause. You didn't talk about anything that might give the enemy information. "Loose lips sank ships". I can't imagine the people today having the determination of those days nor can I picture the news commentators keeping their 'lips zipped'. We had 'Victory Gardens' and grew our own food. Those who couldn't fight contributed in other ways. My aunt went to work in a factory to do welding so the men could go to war. As Tom Brockaw wrote in his book, "This was the Greatest Generation". When the war was over my father took his gun out and shot into the ground since we didn't have fireworks."

On June 17th, 1947, Nancy received a Special Recognition for her achievement in Art, an interest that continued all her life. Nancy then attended Cedar Crest College in Allentown, Pennsylvania where she majored in Home Economics in the area of fashion and clothing. She was employed by the John Wanamaker Department Store in an Executive Training Program then to the Bridal Salon as a Gift Consultant. She was subsequently employed by Standard Press Steel Company, Jenkintown, Pennsylvania in the Production and Control Department.

At age 21, Nancy married and moved to Sunbury, Northumberland County, PA where she was employed by Sears, Roebuck & Company until her first son, Palmer was born on June 21, 1957. Later they moved to Hanover, Pennsylvania and then to Fireside Terrace, York, Pennsylvania. She later became assistant buyer at the Bon Ton Department Store and John was the Office Manager with Shipley Humble, a fuel oil jobber. When her husband, John went with Susquehanna University as Alumni Director, they moved to a farm in Winfield, RD#1 and she became active in the University life. In 1964, they returned to York where her husband was Vice President of Shipley Humble, and there Jason was born. Later when her husband became Vice President and later President of Phillips Fuel Company in Hackensack, N.J., Nancy and the family moved to Old Tappan, New Jersey. When the boys were grown, she went to work locally in Old Tappan with the Hirsch Organization (a stock analyst and newsletter publishing company). After the boys left home, she took up her interest in art again.

In 1987 Nancy and John began spending eight months per year at her Florida residence in a community called Barefoot Bay, in southern Brevard County. Here she became very active in the Barefoot Bay Artists' Guild and the Brevard Association of Miniaturists. She was President of the Artist's Guild for several terms and was a Charter Member of the Brevard County Watercolor Society and also belonged to The Guild of Creative Art in Shrewsbury, New Jersey, the Vero Beach Art Club, and the Florida Watercolor Society. She is an accomplished artist showing her work in many shows on the East Coast of Florida and on the New Jersey shore area. Her miniatures appeared in the Brevard County Art Museum and in libraries in both Micco, Fla. and Shrewsbury, New Jersey. The creations she is most proud of are her children and grandchildren and of course the artist's assistant, her husband, John.

In the year 2000, Nancy and John decided to move to Vero Beach, Florida as their primary place of residence. Nancy's interests are the following: Arts, crafts, miniatures, decorating, genealogy, reading and travel. She is a member of Daughters of the American Revolution (NAT #671373) and a volunteer and guild member for Hibiscus Childrens Village (a village for abused children). Another shared interest that was between Nancy and her parents and her husband is genealogy. In 2006 one of her books on the Frantz family that had been given to the Latter Day Saints Genealogy Library has been put on line of the Brigham Young University Library so it can be accessed by others. She is in the process of editing a new book "The Descendants of Jacob Frantz of Alsace and Lorraine". This is the result of about thirty years of research. Hopefully, it will be published in 2007 to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the Frantz Reunion in New Ringgold, PA.

3266. Palmer Shipman Hendricks (John Shipman Hendricks, Edna Maude Shipman, Horatio Elmer Shipman, Salathiel H. Shipman, Isaac Shipman, Harmon Shipman, Nicholas Shipman, Harmon Shipman (Schuppmann), Herman) was born 21 Jun 1957 in Sunbury, Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania and was christened 21 Jul 1957 in Zion Lutheran Church, Sunbury, Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania.

Palmer was "almost" born as his mother attended graduation exercises at Susquehanna University when his father was graduated! At the time, his young family was living in a small apartment in the home of Palmer's great grand parents, Ezra and Sarah Jane (Bogar) Hendricks, on Reagan Street in Sunbury, Pennsylvania. Palmer spent much of his childhood in York, Pennsylvania and when 13 years of age, he accompanied the family to Old Tappan, New Jersey where he finished his public schooling. He attended Florida Institute of Technology at Melbourne, Florida and University of Miami. Early employment included working on tugboats out of Monmouth Beach, NJ and operating his own boat cleaning service while in Miami, Florida attending college. He eventually accepted employment as a commodities clerk for Helfer Commodities on the Commodities Exchange in New York City at the World Trade Center. This led to the start of his own partnership firm for trading in commodities. In 1998 he sold his home in Chester, New Jersey and moved his family to Vero Beach, Florida where he resided for one year while working as a Financial Advisor at Morgan Stanley Dean Witter. In the year 2000 he again returned to the commodities exchange on the New York Mercantile Exchange.

It was while attending college in Miami, Florida that he met Andi who was also a University of Miami student. Following their marriage in 1981 they initially lived in Old Tappan, New Jersey in the home of Palmer's parents and then in an apartment in Jersey City, New Jersey. The birth of their first born son, Justin Michael Hendricks on 6 November 1986 prompted the purchase of a home in Maplewood, New Jersey. On 4 January 1990 another son, Joshua Alexander Hendricks, was born. Several years after the birth of Joshua, the family sold their home in Maplewood and built a large home in Chester, New Jersey. They resided there until 1998 when they moved to Vero Beach, Florida. In 2000 they moved to Washington's Crossing, Pennsylvania and it was from this home that Palmer commuted each day to his work in the NYME.

Palmer married Anne Rae Zackowitz, daughter of Bernard Zackowitz and Lillian Kitty Tanenzapf, on 13 Sep 1981 in Channel Club, Monmouth Beach, New Jersey. Anne was born 16 Sep 1957 in Somerville, New Jersey.

They had the following children:

3687 M i. Justin Michael Hendricks was born 6 Nov 1986 in North Bergen, Bergen Co., New Jersey.

Justin was SUPPOSED to be a girl according to all of the experts (doctor, parents, friends, grandmother, soothsayers and others) ALL, that is except his GRANDFATHER, John S Hendricks, who KNEW from day one that he was a BOY!! And what a boy he was! 7 pounds 12 oz, good looks and big feet....just like his grandfather!

Justin is an excellent computer game player -- his scores were always the highest . . . especially when his opponent was his father or his grandfather! He was also an outstanding swimmer at an early age. On one occasion, he saved a young child who had accidentally fallen into the family swimming pool at Chester, New Jersey. In 1993, at age 6, he made his first solo, long-distance, commercial airline flight from Newark, New Jersey to Melbourne, Florida to visit his grandparents. When his family moved to Vero Beach in 1998, Justin started catching in Little League baseball and was the pride of the family . . . of course, he had to share the spotlight with his younger brother, Joshua who was also playing in Little League. When the family moved to Washington's Crossing, Pennsylvania, Justin's interests switched to football and wrestling.

3688 M ii. Joshua Alexander Hendricks was born 4 Jan 1990 in Livingston, New Jersey.

Joshua was born at St Barnabas Hospital, Livingston, New Jersey. During the summer of 1993, when he was but three years of age, he spent his first "vacation" with his "PopPop" and "Nanna" at the shore in Sea Bright, New Jersey. This was where he would get up early (5 a.m.) in the morning and walk with "PopPop" into town where he was rewarded with a "Slurpy". Then the walk back along the sea wall to the Condominium. In February, 1996, when he was just 6 years of age, he and his brother flew commercially from Newark, New Jersey to Melbourne, Florida to vacation with "Nanna" and "PopPop" in Barefoot Bay. That same summer, Joshua would visit his grandparents at their Sea Bright, New Jersey home where he demonstrated his skills on roller blades along the ocean at Long Branch . . . all this before he even entered the first grade of school!

3267. Jason Paul Hendricks (John Shipman Hendricks, Edna Maude Shipman, Horatio Elmer Shipman, Salathiel H. Shipman, Isaac Shipman, Harmon Shipman, Nicholas Shipman, Harmon Shipman (Schuppmann), Herman) was born 27 Sep 1964 in York, York Co., Pennsylvania and was christened in York, York Co., Pennsylvania.

Jason Paul was named after his father, John as "J's son" shortened to Jason. The "Paul" portion was from his maternal Grandfather, Paul Copenhagen Smith. When Jason was five years old (1969), his family moved to Old Tappan, New Jersey where he attended elementary school and then Saddle River Country Day School. He also attended Brookdale Community College. His interests, although varied, always centered on music during his early years. From a very young age, he and his friends always had a band and even converted the family basement to a practice room (complete with egg cartons nailed to the ceiling to deaden the sound!).

Jason was employed in a variety of capacities and, for a period of time, he owned and operated a news/magazine shop in New York City. His employment from 1997 on was with the firm of Spear, Leeds & Kellogg where in Feb 2000 he was named Ass't Vice President. (The Spear, Leeds & Kellogg firm was subsequently acquired by Goldman Sachs) This New York firm is engaged in providing software (computer) support programs to companies on the New York Stock Exchange. Following his marriage to Haemi, they lived in New York City, Brooklyn and finally in Hoboken, New Jersey where they purchased a condominium on Jefferson Street.

Jason married Haemi Yoon, daughter of Young Ha Yoon and Soo Bok OH, on 6 Jun 1993 in Central Park, New York City, New York. Haemi was born 11 Sep 1960 in Itabashi-Ku, Tokyo, Japan.

While still in Tokyo, Japan, Haemi attended a specialized graphic design school. In 1987 she came to the United States on a student visa where she attended "Ballet Art", a school of dance. As a graphic artist and prior to the birth of the twins, Haemi was employed as a package design artist for a Japanese company that promoted and sold the Ninja Turtles, a popular child's toy. She and Jason also provided translation services for Japanese companies who were interested in promoting their products in the United States. Haemi became a citizen of United States on 13 March 2000.

3689 F i. Alexandra Yoon Hendricks was born 25 Sep 1996 in Mt Sinai MedCntr, New York City, New York.

Alexandra ("Alex") was 18.9 inches and 7 pounds, 5 ounces at birth. She was born on Wednesday, 25 September 1996 at 5:27 p.m. by Caesarean section. Her birth was two minutes earlier than that of her twin brother, Jaemison ("Jaemi"). On the day of her birth, her grandparents visited her and her twin brother in the hospital in New York City. To get to the hospital they traveled to the City from Atlantic Highlands in New Jersey by ferry boat. Alex's grandfather's greatest moment was in the hospital room when he got to hold his only granddaughter and dance around the hospital room with her just hours after her 'grand entrance' . . . and she has been making such entrances every day since!

3690 M ii. Jaemison Yoon Hendricks was born 25 Sep 1996 in New York City, New York.

Jaemison ("Jaemi") was 20.9 inches, 7 pounds, ten ounces at birth. He was born at 5:29 p.m. on Wednesday, 25 September 1996 just two minutes after the birth of his twin sister, Alexandra. The birth was by Caesarean section. Jaemi's earliest love was of trains . . . toy trains, real trains, any size, shape or model.

When Jaemi was just four years of age he was diagnosed as having Leukemia. The family was initially devastated but the gallant manner in which Jaemi and his parents handled the subsequent three plus years of treatment was encouraging to behold. Finally, his father, Jason advised all that a milestone event was about to occur. Jaemi was finished with all the medication and therapy treatment and was about to be 'graduated'. The following email message was sent by his father, Jason:

Jaemi's Graduation
Friday, December 12, 2003

This date marks a milestone for Jaemison in his battle against Leukemia. Last night he took the last medication in a chemo-therapy that has spanned over 3 years and 2 months of his seven plus years of life. He swallowed this last handful of pills as he always does, like it was no big deal. There was little fanfare other than our back patting and congratulations.

Today we went to the hospital, as scheduled, for what will (hopefully) be his last therapy-related procedures. He was to have both a bone marrow aspiration and a spinal tap; not to administer any medication but to draw samples for testing purposes. As usual, everything went off without a hitch. From our very first day at the hospital, the people of Valerie Fund / Newark Beth Israel have provided flawless care to Jaemi and displayed an uncommon degree of passion and commitment that has, truly, had a therapeutic effect on our whole family.

Upon Jaemi's release, we were instructed to go to the Valerie Fund offices (in a different part of the hospital). As stated earlier, Jaemi has always taken his disease in stride, rarely letting the nasty side effects or extended hospital stays get him down. His emotional strength has, in fact, been an inspiration to his mother and father. But when we arrived and his doctors and nurses began gathering around him, offering their hugs and congratulations, the real significance of the event finally began to sink in. All at once, they broke into song:

* Graduation Day Song *
by Cassandra Barnette, RN, CPNP (one of Jaemi's nurses)
(sung to the tune of the Oscar Meyer Wiener song)

Our patients have the greatest S.M.I.L.E.
Our patients have the sweetest H.E.A.R.T.
Oh, we love to see them every day
But now it's time for us to say...
Although you'll come back through our doors
You don't get chemo anymore!

Jaemi smiled all through it, shyly accepted the last of his hugs and then we said our goodbyes. He was quiet for a while afterwards (not unusual for Jaemi). Then he asked us if he could do "something special" because it was his "special day, right?" When asked what he had in mind he indicated a strong desire for a sandwich. He was, obviously, still hungry from fasting in the morning. "Of course," I said, "but you can do better than that." He then stated that he would like to "go to the park." It was cold outside but we couldn't say no. I encouraged him to keep going. He offered, "a toy?" "A toy... sure. Anything else?" With goofy smile on his face, "umm, a banana?" So, despite more prodding on my part, this was all Jaemi wanted on his "special day." Modest requests, all, however he took real pleasure in each one (although he was probably exaggerating how good the banana was). In the coming weeks, as the dietary restrictions and effects of the chemo fade, Jaemison will, no doubt, experience a real quality-of-life improvement. And nobody deserves it more than him.
